HALF BLOCK IN CARTHAGE BURNED DOWN

Disastrous Fire at Carthage Thursday Night Results in Loss Estimated at $17,000

PART COVERED BY INSURANCE

Blaze is Discovered in Lineback's Tailor Shop at 10:30 and Spreads Quickly

ORIGIN IS NOT DETERMINED

Seven Business Rooms Are Destroyed and Very Little of Contents of Any Saved

Business houses located in the half block destroyed were: Forrest Kennedy's restaurant, J. A. Lineback's tailor shop, the Carthage Natural Gas company's office, Forrest Raul's barber shop, James Carfield's blacksmith shop, William Bundy's repair shop and Mrs. Alice Hale's Five and Ten Cent store. Mrs. Hale formerly conducted a similar business establishment in Rushville.

The fire originated in Lineback's tailor shop and spread quickly to adjoining rooms. It was discovered at 10:30 o'clock and the flames were not all extinguished until two o'clock this morning.

The flames were fought with the Carthage motor fire truck, but it was unable to prevent the spread of the flames through the whole half block.

The only thing that saved the west half of the block was the fire doors on the Henley building across the alley from the Kennedy restaurant. The fire doors together with the fact that the building is built of brick,

A half block of business houses in Mill street, east of Main, in Carthage were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at $17,000, but may prove to be much greater as the buildings burned down and practically all the contents were lost.

Communications with Carthage were cut off today because of the snow storm, but it was said by persons who had talked with Carthage people by phone early today that the loss was only partly covered by insurance.

FIRE IN SHED CAUSES LOSS CLOSE TO $500

Destroys Joe Dickman's Household Goods in Storage and Upholstering Tools Thursday Night

ORIGIN IS NOT EXPLAINED

Approximately $500 damage was done last night when a shed back of Joe Dickman's house in North Morgan street was destroyed by fire between ten and eleven o'clock last night. Some of Dickman's household goods stored there, a baseburner, some furniture being repaired by Mr. Dickman and all his tools used in the upholstering business were destroyed.

The cause of the fire can not be determined. There was no fire in the building and nothing from which a fire could start. The call for the fire department was delayed. The man who discovered it could not work the fire alarm box and telephoned the call in just as another turned in the alarm.

Mr. Dickman had no insurance except on his household goods, but he is in doubt about whether he can collect any insurance because that which was destroyed was in storage. A portion of the shed where some wood and coal was stored was saved.

GUARD MAKES PROGRESS

Twenty-Five at Weekly Drill on Thursday Night

Twenty-five members of the Rushville home guard unit were present at the weekly drill meeting which was held Thursday evening in the corridors of the court house. The members of the unit who attend the drill meetings regularly have become well acquainted with the military terms and with the infantry drill and have made rapid progress during the weeks they have practiced. Capt. Sparks is anxious for the company to be recruited to war strength and urges men throughout the county to join the organization.

NEW NOTE STRUCK AT THE INSTITUTES

Farmer's Opportunity to Aid in Winning War and Best Methods to Use Emphasized

INSTITUTE AT ORANGE SCHOOL

L. C. Thompson and Mrs. Tuttle of Purdue Speak, Officers Elected and Prizes Awarded

A new note is being struck in the farmer's institutes of this year from those of any previous year. The farmer's opportunity in aiding in the winning of the war and the best methods to employ to attain these ends have been emphasized in the excellent institutes that have been held to date. Yesterday, good crowds were present at the Orange township institute held in the school building at Orange when Mrs. Tuttle and L. C. Thompson of Purdue university interested their hearers with topics of practical interest to farmers.

Approximately 250 attended the farmer's institute held at the Moscow school house today. Mr. Thornburg gave an instructive talk on the corn situation. Mr. Thornburg comes from Winchester and is well posted on the subject. Marion Dietrick, county emergency demonstration agent, gave an interesting talk on "Soil Fertility." The domestic science class of the school served dinner to the visitors at noon.

Both of the speakers from Purdue took part in the afternoon and morning session at the Orange institute.

Mr. Thompson spoke at the morning session on "The Advantages of an Agricultural Education" when the chances that are open to an up-to-date farmer were emphasized. An appeal was made to the young men especially to learn the most modern methods. The farmers were urged to "get together," by Mr. Thompson in his talk at the afternoon meeting on the subject, "The Business End of Co-operation." The greater results that could be attained by their working in unison and in a business-like manner and the great need for co-operation at this particular time were among the points made by the speaker.

Mrs. Tuttle, in her two talks, dealt with the home and church problems. In the morning talk on, "Rural Church Efficiency," the problem of keeping young people actively interested in the church was presented and solutions to the problem were offered by Mrs. Tuttle. A number of methods of building up interest in the rural churches were suggested by the speaker. To give boys and girls on the farms the very best home influence was the plea made by Mrs. Tuttle in the talk she made at the afternoon session.

A "Hoover" lunch was served at noon. A delicious basket dinner had been furnished and it was served in such a way that there would be the smallest possible waste. One hundred and forty-five attended the morning session and 212 were at the afternoon meeting.

RED CROSS FLAG IS GIVEN HIGH SCHOOL

Presented by Junior Class and Contains 105 Crosses Representing Students Enrolled

E. B. THOMAS SPEAKS BRIEFLY

Presentation Speech Made by Ralph Plessinger and Supt. J. H. Scholl Accepts It

"Don't think you have done a little thing, boys and girls," said E. B. Thomas chairman of the Red Cross at the high school this morning after the Junior class had presented the school with a Red Cross service flag bearing 105 crosses, "you have done a tremendous thing. You have put into this cord of patriotism and loyalty one strand, you have put in some of your own heart beats. It is not only the dollar that you have given for membership. Some one has said that the war would be won when American spirit was mobilized and you have contributed toward the mobilization of that spirit. If this were but a single act, it would be small but it is one of a series of acts that boys and girls over the entire nation are doing and that cord of patriotism of which you are a part counts."

The beautiful flag bordered with blue with a large Red Cross in the center and a small cross for each of the 105 students who belong to Red Cross, had been made by the girls of the Junior class and was presented by Ralph Plessinger, a member of the class who spoke with originality and with the fervor of patriotism. At the close of his remarks, Miss Lena Vaughn, dressed as a Red Cross nurse, cut the cord which held the flag concealed and the flag unfolded before the students who voiced their appreciation and depth of feeling by their applause.

A "Taylor-made poem," written by Miss Mary Taylor and read by Miss Mary Ellen Hughes, followed on the program. Superintendent J. H. Scholl accepted the flag in behalf of the students and teachers with an appropriate talk in which he complimented the students for their exhibitions of patriotism and loyalty by the presentation of the three flags, the American flag, the service flag and the Red Cross flag.

"You have warmed the hearts of the teachers and patrons of this school," he said, "by these fine acts. The American flag which one of the classes has given to the school is the emblem of the nation which is having an influence on the entire world and the emblem under which the nations are all to be united, in the cause of freedom. As we look at the service flag bearing stars for each of our students with the colors we think of 'tramp, tramp, tramp the boys are marching.' We think of the remarks that each of the boys who have returned from the camps have made to the school that 'they like it and they are fighting for freedom.' The American flag represents patriotism, the service flag represents the marching of our boys to war and the Red Cross flag represents mercy—mercy not only to our allies but to our enemies. It has been presented because you students have expressed yourselves by joining Red Cross."

In closing Superintendent Scholl urged all of the students who do not belong to Red Cross to join. He also showed the Red Cross flag of the Junior high school on which 69 stars were placed out of the 105 students in that department. The one hundred and five stars on the high school flag were arranged in the shape of a Red Triangle for the Red Triangle boys in the school. Miss Denais and Miss Denny assisted in making the flag.

Ralph Plessinger, in presenting the flag spoke as follows: "When it comes to patriotism, one will have to search a long time before he

RULINGS RECEIVED IN EIGHTEEN CASES

District Board Sustains Local Board On Dependency Claims, Denying 8 Agricultural Claims

9 DEFERRED CLASSIFICATIONS

Registrants Notified to Finish Incomplete Questionnaires—65 Classified by Local Board

The names of registrants classified yesterday as well as names of those whose claims have been sent to the district board, will be found on page nine of today's issue.

Rulings on the cases of eighteen registrants under the selective conscription law were received from the district board today by the local board. Seventeen of them were on agricultural claims and one was on appeal on a dependency claim, the local board being sustained in each instance. One of the registrants classified on agricultural grounds also had a dependency claim, but was left in class one.

Questionnaires are being returned at the rate of more than seventy a day, so that there is little doubt but that practically all of them will be filled out and in the hands of the local board by tomorrow night. The legal advisory board and associate members have announced that they will not work after tomorrow and all registrants are urged to have their questionnaires completed by that time.

A score or more questionnaires have been found incomplete or wrong in one way or the other. Some questions have not been answered correctly and others have not been answered at all. In some instances signatures were not made where they should have been. The local board today sent notices to registrants whose questionnaires were not complete to have them call and make the desired correction.

The board ruled on sixty-five cases yesterday. This makes a total of 761 cases acted on so far, 332 of which have been placed in class one by the board. Thirty-nine were added to this class yesterday. Three were put in class two, one in class three, eight in class four and fourteen in class five.

Horace Jones, who was called for physical examination Tuesday, but did not appear until yesterday, was passed by the physician member of the board, Dr. W. S. Coleman.

Of the seventeen agricultural claims ruled on by the district board eight were denied and the registrants left in class one, three were placed in class two, two in class three and four in class four. Edgar E. Crull, who filed a dependency claim but was put in class one by the local board, was left in class one by the district board. Elmer Kinslow, who was put in class two on an

Chase and Chester Taylor Plead Guilty in Court

Chase and Chester Taylor plead guilty to two charges each this afternoon in the mayor's court. The former was fined $5 and costs for contempt of court and one dollar and costs for intoxication. The contempt of court charge was levied when he assaulted Chief of Police Yakey in attempting to leave the court room. Chester Taylor's two fines were one dollar and costs for public intoxication and five dollars and costs for carrying concealed weapons. The fines were paid. They were arrested by Will Spivey, deputy sheriff.

CHARLES B. BROWN COMMITTS SUICIDE

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown of Walker Township Takes Life in Johnson County

HE DRINKS CARBOLIC ACID

Body is Taken to Parents Home and Funeral Will be Held Sunday—Sister Suicide Few Years Ago

Charles B. Brown, 31, of Shelby county, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown of Walker township ended his life Wednesday by drinking a quantity of carbolie acid on a lonely road in Johnson county.

The place where the body was found is half a mile over the Shelby county line in Johnson county. The discovery was made by men who were operating a fodder shredder in that vicinity. The body was found shortly after two o'clock in the afternoon and indications were that the man had died about noon as he had been seen along the road about eleven o'clock.

Despondency over the condition of his health is believed to have been the cause of the act. Mr. Brown had been in ill health for more than ten years and had returned home only two weeks ago from a hospital in Indianapolis where he had been taking treatment.

The deceased is survived by a widow and three small children. The body was taken to the home of his parents south of Manilla from where the funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon. This is the second death from suicide which has occurred in the Brown family. Miss Viola Brown took poison while residing in Illinois a few years ago. She was a sister of Charles Brown.

WELL KNOWN FARMER DIED THIS MORNING

Joseph S. Winship Expired at Home North of Richland Following Sickness From Pneumonia

FUNERAL SUNDAY MORNING

Joseph S. Winship, 73 years of age, died this morning at one o'clock at his home a mile and three quarters north of Richland. Lobar pneumonia with which he has been ill for several weeks, caused the death. Mr. Winship was a well known farmer of this city and for many years had operated a farm near Richland. He is survived by a widow and one brother, Frank Winship, of Indianapolis. The funeral services will be held at the home on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

In order to conserve fuel the Neutzelhelzer, Frazee and Plough hat shops will close every evening during January and February at six o'clock, Saturdays included.

Reports Conflicting

Amsterdam, Jan. 11.—After Brest-Litovsk dispatches received from Berlin had declared the Russo-German peace negotiations definitely suspended yesterday, messages arriving late this afternoon reported a resumption of the meeting. It was stated that the Ukrainian delegates were presenting their demands.

May Agree to Some Terms

Washington, Jan. 11.—Germany will not agree now to more than the first four or five of President Wilson's peace terms. Authorities were convinced of this today in the light of preliminary Teuton press comments on his speech.

Amsterdam, Jan. 11.—The Russo-German peace conference at Brest-Litovsk have been terminated. The sitting was suspended when the Germans refused to transfer negotiations to neutral soil. Bolshevik foreign minister, Trotsky moved the conclusion of the meeting.

The German delegates announced also that all plans for a general peace meeting were considered as definitely off, because of the failure of the entente powers to respond within 10 days to the invitation to participate. Count Czernin, Austrian foreign minister, announced that escorts of the central powers were willing to negotiate a separate peace with Prussia.

Petrograd, Jan. 11.—Russian foreign minister Trotsky asked suspension of the Brest-Litovsk peace

BLIZZARD AND HEAVY SNOW IS STATE-WIDE

Situation From Lack of Fuel Is Acute Now and Colder Wave Is Predicted Soon

COUNTY IS "SNOWED UNDER"

Indianapolis, Indiana, Jan. 11.—Snow, accompanied by a dry wind, that started falling early today in Indiana increased steadily until noon when it reached the proportion of a blizzard. The fuel situation was desperate, many schools in Indianapolis and other cities being forced to close. With colder weather in prospect intense suffering is bound to result according to officials.

The heavy snow which began falling early this morning has been general over the entire county and the roads have been badly impaired by the snow banks. Although a cold wave is predicted for tonight, this afternoon the temperature had not fallen to any great degree. Coal dealers have not received any coal today and have no prospects for any in the immediate future. If the predicted blizzard arrives the suffering from the lack of fuel in the city and county will be intense.

PRO-ALLY BUGS AID THE SAMMIES

Each Soldier Gets About One Billion of These Anti-Typhoiders Injected in His Arm

TYPHOID DEADLY AS BULLETS

Vaccination Practically Eliminated
The Disease From the Army
For Two Years

By GEORGE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 11.—Billions of pro-ally bugs to fight diseases that fight America's soldiers who fight the Kaiser are being sent to camps at home and abroad and syringed into our Sammies by army surgeons, the government announced today.

Between April 1 and November 1 the government, through its Army Medical school here, has reared a family of eleven quadrillion, seventy-five trillion, three hundred and thirty-two billion, two hundred and fifty million of these battling bug-folk. If every one of them didn't get born, grow up and raise a large family at the rate of several million every few minutes the government couldn't have done it.

And the funny part of it is that every one of that staggering nation of bugs grow from the lineal descendants of an old Adam and Eve bug family caught and isolated by the British government seventeen years ago. Inter-married with them are a few trillions of native American stock, just to let the British bugs know that America has entered the war.

Each soldier gets about a billion of these Anglo-American atom-fighters shot into his system. They are anti-typhoiders. Along with them go about 750,000,000 anti-para-typhoiders. The ghastly total which we refuse to repeat, constitutes about enough bugs to protect the systems of two million American soldiers.

There's a long technical history of this bug family supplied by the government. Sort of a "from the cradle to the grave" affair. Put tersely, this is about what it amounts to.

The bugs are grown in colonies on glass, and they start for camp finally in a glass dress, wearing black caps of tri-cresol in their heads. They are by this time corpses, but it is as corpses that they do their best work. This is the only known branch of military service wherein dead fighters accomplish more than live ones.

These colonies are grown until all members of it are good, fat, robust germs, skipping around enjoying life and just itching to give somebody a fine case of typhoid fever.

The men who have brought them to strength and maturity by working in sealed rooms surrounded by damp, steamy atmosphere then proceed to kill them and dress them up in their glass gladrags and black hats. These men have worked like trojans at their task and despite close watching by government inspectors, many of them have fainted at their work. They make as few and as slow movements, even as to breathing, as they possibly can get along with, to prevent circulation of air and harm to the germs.

Now the germs are ready for the final squirt. Into a soldier's arm through a needle roll the billion, seven hundred and fifty million dead. Then they ride around his system on the tide of his blood. They are still full of typhoid poison, but being dead they have no way of directing that poison against the soldier's health.

But the poison, made active by its contact with the blood, has to attack something, so it hunts up all the live typhoid and para-typhoid germs in the man's system and offers battle. The live typhoiders accept the challenge and mobilize. The dead typhoiders poison blindly does like-

BAKER UNDER FIRE OF SENATE PROBES

Secretary of War Criticized for His Review of Supply Situation Yesterday

BAKER ANSWERS ASSAULTS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 11.—Secretary of war Baker today sat under the fire of senate military probes criticizing him for his review of the supply situation submitted yesterday.

Senators Wadsworth, Chamberlain, McKeller and Weeks joined in assault on Baker's declaration that the initial rush needs of the army has been fully met.

"You have created the impression through the country that everything is rosy, conditions are fine and that there is no need for further haste," said Wadsworth.

"The facts are," he added, "that we are approaching one of the greatest crisis in our history. It is unwise in my judgment to create a false impression of the situation in the country."

"What I wanted the country to understand," replied Baker, "is that our troops in France are and will be fully supplied with artillery ammunition and other needs."

wise. Then the two armies go to it. They fight it out from the top of that man's head to the tip of his toes sometimes for days. The heat of battle frequently makes the man, who is also the battlefield, feel feverish and rotten.

But the dead bugs, being already dead and unable to die any more, though still able to fight, eventually kill all the live ones, absorb them into their own ranks and stands on their necks in an attitude of victory.

Thus is Uncle Sam fighting that which during the Spanish-American war was deadlier than bullets—typhoid. Thus does he employ the old principle: "set a thief to catch a thief."

How successful he has been is shown by the fact between the beginning of vaccinations for typhoid in 1911 and the year 1913, the disease was practically eliminated from the army. There were in that year only four cases of and no deaths from typhoid in an army of over 90,000. There were only 37 cases among Guardsmen and 15 among regular army men on the Mexican border during the mobilization there.

Woman Does Her Own Work Now

Doesn't Need Help Since Tanlac Built Up Her Run Down System.

"My system was run down and I felt so weak that I had to have help to do my housework but since I've been taking Tanlac I've got back my strength and can do all my housework myself," said Mrs. Pearl Ham-mock, 1616 Halford street, Anderson, Ind.

"I often had nervous chills. My heart would beat violently and I'd have to be quiet for a long time. I couldn't sleep soundly at night and lots of times I got out of bed and sat in a chair for a while.

"My stomach was out of order, too, and my appetite was poor.

"I read a lot about Tanlac and finally tried it. It just seemed to build me right up. I got my appetite in just a short time and it wasn't long until those chills I had had disappeared.

"I'm strong enough to do all my housework and I don't have to keep help and I give Tanlac credit of it all."

If you are not feeling right take Tanlac and get your system back in shape. Tanlac will improve your health as it has done for thousands of other run down men and women. You can get Tanlac at F. E. Wolcott's drug store or any other good drug store.—Adv.

conference until Russian and Ukrainian delegates could formulate replies to the central powers proposals.

The reply will be read at a further sitting, it was stated today.

Petrograd today is in a fever of war preparation. Germans are being shifted to the northern front. All army officers have been ordered to return to the front position which they held previous to the revolution. The Bolsheviks were seeking to reorganize the supplies system at once.

Nicholas Lenine told of Russia's intention to fight for a just peace before his departure presumably for Stockholm today.

"I fear we must halt our demobilization and prepare for war," he declared.

INDIANANS SUPPORT CHILDREN OF FRANCE

As Part of Red Cross War Relief Work 25,000 Children Being Cared For

RECEIVE MEDICAL CARE

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Of the more than five hundred thousand Indianans who have recently become members of the American Red Cross, a conspicuous State Representation, in the sixteen million national membership secured through the recent drive, are contributing directly at this time to the support of twenty five thousand children of France. This is purely incidental to greater work of war relief to which the Red Cross is committed.

In addition 700 children are receiving complete medical care at the hands of the American Red Cross doctors and 3,060 are being treated at the medical dispensaries of the American Relief society; 20,300 orphans are being aided by the Red Cross directly or indirectly 6000 Belgian children, of whom it has 1000 in complete charge are being aided by the Red Cross.

This child welfare work is only a small part of the work of mercy which the American Red Cross is carrying on among the civilians of the devastated counties. The support of its millions of members in this country and its hundred of thousands in Indiana, makes this work possible.

GINGS FARMERS TO MEET

A meeting of interest to farmers and their wives will be held at the Gings school house next Monday evening at seven o'clock. Marion Detrick, county emergency demonstration agent, will be present and make a talk. Women especially are urged to attend.

13 WAREHOUSES FOR RED CROSS

Establishments Like Department Stores Set up in France to Store Red Cross Goods

SUPPLIES ARE SENT DIRECT

French and Belgian Men Unfit for Duty are Workmen Under American College Boys

Washington, Jan. 11.—One of the comparatively trifling little detail tasks of the American Red Cross in connection with its $100,000,000 war job overseas was to build thirteen giant department stores at various places in France.

These big establishments are used for the storage and distribution of the millions of dollars worth of Red Cross supplies flowing to France from this country at the rate of 15,000 tons a month.

Cables announcing the completion of these stores and detailing some of the uses to which they are put were received here.

The Red Cross calls them warehouses, but cables that their contents are as numerous and as varied as those of an American department store. One of them, in Paris, is so big that freight cars are run right into the building and unloaded.

It is to these big stores that the war knitting you do and the bandages you roll, are sent direct.

"To serve the American troops and the hundreds of war hospitals behind the French firing line, and to reach the thousands of French refugees, the Red Cross has established this system of thirteen warehouses," said the cable.

"This new war relief distribution system has been organized since the arrival of the Red Cross Commission, in Paris, in June.

"Six of the warehouses have been located in Paris, which serves as the center of the distribution system. Ten others are located in departments outside the capital and from these supplies are distributed by motor trucks, wagons, and every available means of transportation, to hospitals and other institutions.

"A large proportion of these supplies is received directly from the United States and is forwarded by the Red Cross Supply Service from chapter work-rooms and from relief societies affiliated with the Red Cross. Owing to the great shortage of ocean tonnage, large quantities of supplies have been purchased by the Red Cross Commission in France.

"The stocks of goods carried by the warehouses include every kind of medical supplies, drugs and surgical instruments for the use of hospital staffs. Foodstuffs, clothing, building materials, plowing implements and tools are also being imported in large quantities for the assistance of French refugees.

"Red Cross warehouses in Paris alone have a capacity of three and a half million cubic feet and can take care of sixty thousand tons of supplies at a time.

"American college men, many of whom formerly served as drivers in the American Ambulance, are directing the work, while the force of workmen is recruited from veteran French soldiers and Belgian men no longer fit for military duty. The French Government and the municipal authorities of Paris are co-operating with the Commission in the securing of labor and in maintaining the transportation service."

Washington, Jan. 11.—Private Fred Cook of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, died Nov. 22 as the result of an accidental gunshot wound while aboard a transport enroute to Europe, Gen. Pershing advised the war department today.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The federal farm loan system was saved from disaster today when the house adopted a conference report authorizing the secretary of the treasury to buy $200,000,000 worth of farm loan bonds in the next two years. The senate has agreed to the report.

The origin of the fire had not been determined today, according to reports coming from Carthage. It started in Lineback's tailor shop. There was no disposition to believe it was of incendiary, but not many weeks ago an attempt was made to set fire to a business house in Carthage.

saved a much larger loss, because if the fire had started in the west half of the Mill street block, it would have spread to business houses in Main street and the larger part of the business district might have been destroyed.

Some fear was entertained that the Henley lumber yards, a large frame structure occupying the block in Mill street east of that portion burned, would catch fire, but the wind was with the fire fighters, blowing the sparks south and west. If the planing mill had caught fire, it would have burned quickly because there are large quantities of lumber stored there.

The fire was a complete loss for all of the places destroyed with the exception of the barber shop and restaurant. All of the equipment and furniture of the barber shop was saved except the mirrors. About one-third of the restaurant stock, furniture, dishes and silverware was saved.

Another S. O. S.

In wireless telegraphy, S. O. S. is the signal call for assistance, as from a ship in distress. Our good Ship of State may or may not be in "distress," but its pilot has sent out a "call for assistance." This call has been abbreviated into the signal
"W. S. S." which is now echoing throughout the land. It stands for War-Savings Stamps, War-Saving Service, and War-Saving Societies.

The assistance asked is two-fold:
First, to provide from the little savings of those with small incomes, $2,000,000,000 to aid the government in carrying to a triumphant end to the war into which it has been forced in defense of its own people and of the rights of humanity throughout the world. It is a war which the military autocracy of Germany began for the purpose of plundering or dominating all the nations of the earth. It has been waged by its initiators with a fiendish ferocity from which savages would recoil.
The deliberate murder of helpless women and children has been a part of the policy of "frightfulness." Though our Ship of State may not really be in danger, it certainly is buffeted by winds and waves which make its voyage tempestuous, and it needs the money to keep its furnaces stoked and its propellers running. Hence the W. S. S. call.

But there is a second greater good involved in the response, than merely the assistance rendered to the Government. In order that the funds be secured by the plan proposed, it will be necessary that rigid economy be practiced by our people.
There must be an abstinence from unnecessary expenditures, a self-denial of luxuries, an abandonment of needless indulgences, and an accumulation of the money thus saved.
If the economy and thrift thus practiced shall become a fixed habit with our people it will work a revolution in our national life, and change us from a spendthrift to a thrifty nation.

If this can be accomplished, even this terrible war will have its compensations in the prosperity that will follow in its wake. While individual suffering, deprivation and loss of life may not be atoned for to the sufferers, they may find satisfaction in the knowledge that they have suffered for the general good, and that their sacrifices have not been in vain.

Don't Cough All Night

It wears down your strength, racks your nerves, keeps yourself and all the family from sleeping. Besides, you can easily stop it with

Foley's Honey and Tar.

A standard family medicine of many years standing for grippe and bronchial coughs and colds, tickling throat, hoarseness, stuffy wheezy breathing and for croup and whooping cough. Its effect on the inflamed lining of the throat and air passages is quickly felt and very soothing.
E. H. Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I coughed continuously and at night could hardly sleep.
Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, and one bottle cured my cough entirely."
F. B. Johnson.

Here's Where The Fun Comes In

He Locked the Gate "Open"

Will Spivey has found in the last week that being deputy sheriff carries with it many arduous duties. He got "his feet wet" the first thing by having two attachments to serve.
His friends are telling a story on him that he admits may be true.

Among the personal property attached were ten hogs. It became the duty of the deputy sheriff to care for the hogs until they were sold.
He put them in a pen down at the C. I. & W. freight depot. To make sure that they did not get away, he got a big chain at Schatz's junk yard and a padlock from the jail and securely locked one of the gates—a thing which the deputy sheriff overlooked. The hogs calmly walked out of the gate which he left open and all of his care went for naught. He had to round them all up, but the next time he locked both gates.

In order that these benefits ac-cure, there should be a universal response to the call of the government—old and young should each in their field of endeavor "do their bit."
The government has prepared the way. There is a complete organization reaching every postoffice, bank and school-room of the county through which the War-Savings Certificates and their subsidiary Thrift Stamps are offered for sale on conditions which yield a handsome interest to the purchasers. You help yourself in helping the country. Details can be learned from every postmaster, or even the letter carriers in cities or on rural routes.

The W. S. S. call for assistance reaches every home. There should be not only a patriotic but a thrifty response from 100,000,000 loyal Americans.

Makes The Wheels Go Around

And what if Sen. Calder of New York did own some $20 shirts?
That's nothing to question a man's patriotism for. The senator is probably well able to afford them. When he bought them he enabled his merchant or tailor to make a payment on a liberty bond; the wholesale house also gathered in a mite of profit, and the manufacturers of the cloth, likewise the makers, and even the seamstress who sewed their seams may have had an extra supper from the proceeds. It is such the wheels of commerce rolling. If every man wore the cheapest clothes he could find, the higher priced ones would mildew on the shelves and famine would stalk through the land.
Let the senator wear $50 shirts if he wants to and is able.

Scientific research has ruined the lark's reputation for early rising, we are told. Now if science will assure us that the worm has no such objectionable habit it will lay a bogey that has pursued us all through life.

We are assured by Washington officials that profiteering in food will be ended. May the end be soon, and may it also be the end of the profiteers.

WHAT I WOULD LIKE TO DO

I'd like to help that big uncle of mine
And the Sammys over the sea.
I'd like to help whip the kaiser.
I'll tell you how it would be.
If I should meet him on the street,
I'd pull his ears and then his nose
And twit him with defeat.

I'd snatch him bald you bet.
I'd like to make him holler,
"You are the worst American yet."

I'd like to be a soldier boy
And carry a gun and kit,
But I can only stay at home
And cook and sew and knit.

We cannot always do what we like best.

Sometimes the tasks are hard
So let us do the best we can
For home and country.

And our Uncle Sam.

SUFFRAGE BILL GOES TO SENATE

Having Been Passed by Narrow Margin by House, it Goes to Higher Legislative Body

VOTE IN HOUSE IS 274 TO 136

Whole Indiana Delegation Supports Amendment—An Interview With Rep. Elliott

Washington, Jan. 11—By the narrow margin of a fraction of a vote, the suffrage amendment passed the house last night and now goes to the senate. If passed by the senate, it will be submitted to the states for passage.

Indiana voted solidly in the house for the resolution, Representatives Merrill Moores of Indianapolis and George K. Denton of Evansville being last minute converts to the cause. Women, who packed the galleries, broke into song when the result was known.

The proposed amendment received 274 votes, with 136 opposition votes cast. For passage the resolution required two-thirds of the total vote cast. The resolution received two-thirds of one vote more than the required number.

The fact that the amendment nearly failed was a cause of surprise to the suffragists. They had boasted in advance of the ballot that they would have from ten to twenty votes to the good. Even President Wilson's last hour declaration for the federal amendment, after having been an advocate of state rights, did not seem to have the influence that had been anticipated. The fact that the republican caucus on the measure Wednesday night is considered as having saved the resolution from defeat.

Representative James R. Mann, the republican leader, and Representative Henry A. Barnhart of the Thirteenth Indiana district, both left sick beds to vote for suffrage. It was the first time that Mr. Mann had visited the house chamber in several weeks, and his appearance was the cause for an affectionate demonstration, participated in by republicans and democrats alike without regard to their suffrage alignment. Mr. Mann has been in a hospital at Baltimore and he is thin and pale from his long sickness.

Mr. Barnhart was brought from Providence Hospital, Washington, in a cab at the hour arranged for the balloting. After he had cast his vote he returned to the hospital, where he will remain for a few days longer in recuperating from the effects of an operation which he underwent two weeks ago yesterday. He was greeted by many of his colleagues as he went to his seat.

Representative Richard N. Elliott of the Sixth Indiana district, who is a member of the woman suffrage committee, and Representative William E. Cox of the third Indiana district were among the score or more of speakers heard during the 5-hour debate. Mr. Elliott spoke for three minutes, the time being yielded to him by Representative Jeannette Rankin of Montana, who had charge of the republican side of the suffrage fight.

"I am proud to come from a state whose representatives will vote unanimously for woman's rights," said Mr. Elliott. "And Indiana did not wait for the sudden and last minute conversion of the president to the cause of the federal amendment to reach its decision. I have no criticism for the president in seeing the light so late. On the country, I wish to welcome him to the ranks and to wish that his conversion will be like the conversion of St. Paul and that he will become a master worker in the vineyard of the Lord for suffrage."

could find a school that will surpass R. H. S. I think that I have emphatic evidence to prove the fact. To my surprise, the Sophomores were the first to realize that the school was not complete without a flag. Next the Seniors presented to us this large service flag bearing 60 stars, showing that R. H. S. is well represented in the army. And if one will investigate the standing of these men, he will find that a great number of them are officers, which speaks well for their career in high school. And the boys who could not go, eagerly did their best by subscribing to the Y. M. C. A., and the girls not to be outdone by the boys, organized a 'Girl's Club,' which will do all in its power to help win this war. But the thing that brings out the patriotism of the school the most is the manner in which the pupils joined the Red Cross. The Red Cross ministers not only to our fighting forces and those of our allies and enemies, but also goes wherever there is suffering. Everybody cannot be in the army and navy but the Red Cross gives an opportunity for all. In order that we may be constantly inspired by the patriotism that has been shown in our schools, I take pleasure in presenting to you the Red Cross service flag."

The poem read by Miss Hughes was as follows:

We're at war, kind friends,
For months or years it may be,
For Germany must make amends
To our neighbors across the sea,
We are sending the cream of our nation,
Men who are young and strong,
And this Red Cross organization
Must help to right the wrong.

Each pupil belonging to R. H. S.
Must earnestly do his best,
While the girls will knit and sew, I guess
The boys must do the rest.

They can till the soil and raise the wheat,
Till it doubles o'er and o'er,
For if our soldiers have plenty to eat
We'll win and ask no more.

So for the boys who have gone to the trenches,
That we may stay safely at home,
Not make just only Red Crosses
Nor only one thing alone;

But let us knit socks and sweaters
And make bandages by the score,
That all their wounds and bruises
May feel better than ever before.

And when the war is over,
From France, or wherever they be,
May they all return and live with us
In this land they have helped keep free.

ARCADIA TO PLAY RUSHVILLE TONIGHT

Misunderstanding Regarding Date
Causes Postponement of Game With Newcastle

CURTAIN RAISER AT SEVEN

Arcadia will play the local high school basketball five tonight instead of Newcastle, as has been announced. The change has been made because of some misunderstanding in the date of the game with Newcastle and when it was found that Newcastle had another date, the game with Arcadia, was booked. Tonight's game will be the first the locals have ever played with this team but it is understood that they have a pretty good record.

The game will be called promptly at 7:45 o'clock giving time for the visiting team to reach home this evening. Orange and the second high school team will play the curtain raiser at 7 o'clock.

Arcadia is located near Noblesville and the team there is a part of the Hamilton county Athletic League which has a very good standing. The Newcastle game for February 15 which was to have been played at Newcastle, has also been called off. It is probable that another game will be booked for that date.

Next Friday night the locals go to Greensburg and the following Friday night, they will play Connorsville at Connorsville. The next game on the local floor will be with Liberty on the first of February. Ross Smith of Indianapolis will referee the game tonight.

the school will be a missionary program dealing with the work of the medical missionary. Dr. H. C. Carson will tell of the work and Miss Margaret Giffin will narrate a missionary story.

+Arlington Methodist: Bible school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching by the pastor, 10:30; Epworth League, 6:00 p. m., Miss Vivian Hinton leader, subject, "Enlarge the Place of Thy Tent." A patriotic service will be held at 7:00 p. m. There will be short addresses by the pastor and others and a service flag will be dedicated in honor of the young men in the army. In order not to interfere with the work of any other church, or to go contrary to the wishes of any, the parents are requested to say whether their sons names may be mentioned, and to place the star on the flag honoring the soldier of their home. The pastor has written an encouraging letter to each soldier from this community, as far as he has been able to obtain the address. Patriotic music by the choir and the congregation. Also by a gentleman from Rushville, who will use patriotic disks with his Victrola. All are invited. Everybody is invited to take a small financial interest in the flag.

The Ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a penny supper in the basement of the church on Friday evening, January 18.

SOCIETY

The next meeting of the high school girls' war relief organization will be held at the high school on next Tuesday evening when sewing will be done for Red Cross in connection with the business meeting when other plans for the organization will be discussed. At the last meeting the girls hemmed three dozen towels and one dozen handkerchiefs for Red Cross.

Each of the committees of the club are at work. The magazine committee sends the magazines that are contributed by the students to the training camps every week. In the near future, another committee will collect old papers and sell them. Anyone having old papers they will give for this purpose may notify one of the girls and the papers will be called for. Tinfoil is also being collected to sell and the proceeds will be turned over to the organization. Although the making of trench candles has not been begun, the girls are considering making these also, in the future.

The work which the mission teachers are accomplishing in Africa was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Center Christian church which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Kirkpatrick.

The hostess led the devotional exercises and Mrs. Fanny Emy gave the bible study. An illustration of African responsiveness to Christianity in the present age was given by Mrs. Eulala Kirkham after which Mrs. Lova McBride read a paper on "The Call for the Enlarged Home Base." Research questions were in charge of Mrs. Sadie McBride and the answers were given out by Mrs. Ada Brooks.

The next meeting of the society will be held Feb. 13 at the home of Mrs. George McBride.

Because the assembly room of the court house has been turned over to the Red Cross the meetings of the Ladies Musicale which have been conducted there for some time will be held in the future in the large reception room in the Sheriff's office.

The program for the meeting Monday afternoon will be arranged by the executive committee composed of Mrs. Ed Chambers, Mrs. Lon Kennedy, Miss Wanda Wyatt and Mrs. Neff Ashworth. Arrangements are being made for a benefit concert which will be given Monday evening, January 28. A program of readings and musical numbers are being arranged and the silver offering which will be taken up will be given to the Red Cross. Mrs. Parke will have charge of the program.

Mrs. C. M. George was hostess to the members of the Home Missionary society of the St. Paul's Methodist church yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called at 2:30 and the afternoon lesson was read by Mrs. F. G. Hackleman. A short musical program was given by Mrs. George Hogsett after which the regular business meeting was conducted. A barrel of canned fruit, the annual gift of the local society to the missionary headquarters in Indianapolis, has been sent. The fruit was sent to the Deaconess home.

Mrs. Laura Gordon of North Morgan street will be hostess for the next meeting which will be held in a month.

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Sabina Medias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Medias of Indianapolis and Lieut. Joseph Brumberg, M. R. C., of Buffalo, N. Y., is of interest to local people. Lieut. Brumberg who is attached to the 157th Aero Squadron is now stationed at Mt. Clemens, Mich. The date for the wedding has not been set.

The bride-elect who is well known here has been the house guest of Miss Marian McMillin on various occasions.

A pleasant afternoon of cards was enjoyed by the members of the Minnehaha club yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. H. Gregory entertained the club with an informal euchre party. Mrs. Oliver O'Brien of this city and Miss Ruth VanDorn of Elwood were the guests at the affair.

Account Books Are Necessary Adjuncts Now

They Are Essential These Days Due to Income Tax, Conservation and High Prices. Women Use Them as is Disclosed by Wife Who Answers Financial Question in Husband's Questionnaire.

Account books—every one is using them now-a-days. The income tax, conservation and high prices are all responsible for the systematic methods being adopted for managing ones financial affairs. Farmers have signified their intention of keeping account books for 1918, housewives are purchasing convenient books which are being put out to help keep down expenses and to "watch the corners" and even clerks are keeping expense accounts for 1918.

The income tax makes it a necessity for persons whose incomes are over $1,000 to know the exact amount of the yearly profits. For single men, $1,000 and over is taxed and on married men making $2,000 or more annually the tax is levied. The only answer to the problem of knowing one's exact income is the expense book and the habit of keeping it up to date.

Very convenient little books are being put out by different concerns for the housewives with spaces for the expenditures for each of the household articles. With the present high prices, practical and economical women are keeping up with the price of all household goods so the expense account is less trouble to keep than it would have been several years ago.

The questionnaires recently have brought out the value of an expense account and showed the ability of the housewife as a business manager. A. L. Stewart in filling out the questionnaire asked the man "What were your profits last year?" Before the man had an opportunity to hesitate, his wife spoke up quick as a flash saying, "Five thousand, seven hundred and fifty five dollars and thirty three cents." The remaining figures of the business were just as well imprinted upon her mind although she was not expecting the questions from Mr. Stewart. No doubt, an expense book was the cause for these answers and partially responsible for the well managed farm.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. John Cooning in North Sexton street.

Twenty-five guests were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Pearce in North Main street when she was hostess to the members of the Em-anon club and their guests. At the close of the afternoon which was spent at knitting, the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Vincent Young.

The members of the Men's Bible class of the United Presbyterian church will be entertained this evening at the home of Rev. John T. Aikin in West Seventh street, who is the teacher of the class. The regular business meeting will be held after which the evening will be spent socially. The members of the congregation and their friends have also been invited to attend the affair.

The members of the Harmony club were entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cochran at their home in West Fourth street with an informal card party. Guests for three tables were entertained and at the close of the evening the hostess served a two course luncheon.

Mrs. Frank Flint will be hostess for the next meeting of the club which will be held at her home in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown will entertain at their home in North Morgan street this evening with a pitchin dinner at which the following guests will be entertained: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mullin and son Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowing, Byron Cowing, Mr. and Mrs. Link Guffin, the Misses Margaret and Catherine Guffin, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Har-grove and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle.

The Americanization of the work which the Federated clubs of Indiana will do during the year of 1918 was the keynote of the meeting of the state executive committee which was held yesterday at the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis. Committees were appointed at the meeting to arrange the work for the year and the entire outline of work will be announced within a short time.

Mrs. Guy Abercrombie of this city, chairman for the sixth district, attended the meeting.

Following the meeting of the Grand club which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sexton in North Main street a pretty appointed dinner party was served at which the members of the club and a dozen other guests were entertained.

Among the guests was Mrs. Sarah Henley of Chicago.

Miss Helen Scudder left today for Chillicothe, O., where she will be among the guests at a houseparty and attend the officer's ball given at the training camp this evening. She will visit relatives in Dayton before returning to her home in this city.

The regular business meeting of the Always Present Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian church was held last night at the home of Miss Ruth Higgins in North Harrison street.

Firemen Are Fabricating For Fighters

Sister Susie Sewing Shirts For Soldiers is Outclassed by Firemen Who Are Now Knitting For Soldiers—Firemen in Rochester, N. Y., Are Among The First.

By GEORGE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 11.—It's a long time between fires. So the firemen unit for the Red Cross. They're doing it all over the country, the Red Cross told the United Press today.

Sister Susie and her well known habit of sewing shirts for soldiers has been outclassed. The firemen are fabricating fragments of fabric for fighters.

Chess, checkers, cards and newspapers fall in time. The substitution of motors for horses in many city fire departments has even relieved the firemen of the task of currying and feeding the horses.

So the firemen knit.

One of the first experiments in having firemen knit was in Rochester, N. Y., where George Eastman, the kodak man and a prominent worker in the Rochester Red Cross Chapter, hit upon the idea of enlisting firemen in Red Cross work.

Knitting machines were provided and the men now have competition as to the length of time required to make a sock, and also the quantity that can be turned out in a day. The firemen are very glad to have something to do in their leisure time and are producing a large number of socks.

The possibility of utilizing the leisure time of the thousands of firemen throughout the country has been suggested to the three thousand chapters of the country, and the firemen's assistance in supplying socks to soldiers and sailors will be solicited by the local chapters.

WOMEN TO AID IN WAR COUNCIL WORK

Should Arrange Meetings of Women at Afternoon Session to Discuss Woman's War Activities

WOMEN MUST CO-OPERATE

Indianapolis, Jan. 11.—A special appeal to women members of the County Councils of Defense, to co-operate in every possible way with the arrangements for county war conferences, has been sent out by Mrs. Anne Studebaker Carlisle, head of the Woman's Section of the Indiana Council of Defense. Mrs. Carlisle makes the following recom-

Red Cross Notes

A new supply of yarn has been received by Red Cross and will be given out at the headquarters in the court house tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock. The yarn will be given for socks only, since the decision of the executive committee that at this time of the year, socks were most practical. It was decided that by the time the yarn could be purchased by the Red Cross, distributed, knitted into sweaters, wristlets and scarfs that the weather in France would be warmer and the boys would prefer having knitted socks.

The Red Cross membership in the United States has multiplied almost 1,000 times during the last year. One year ago there were 250,000 Americans in Red Cross and today there are 23 million. The statistics were given by E. B. Thomas, chairman of the county chapter, before the high school this morning.

School children in the northern part of the county have made and completely filled a number of comfort kits for the soldiers. The kits which were turned in to the Red Cross headquarters here have been sent to the state headquarters at Indianapolis for distribution.

A desk is needed at the Red Cross headquarters. A roll top desk or any other kind will answer the purpose. Anyone having one they will donate temporarily is asked to call Mrs. Phil Wilk at the headquarters where it will be used in the work room.

A fine crowd of workers was at headquarters yesterday for the opening of the new quarters.

The ladies of the Catholic church sewed at the headquarters this afternoon.

mentation:

"The women war workers in the county should be most active at these conferences of course. There should be a meeting of the women during the afternoon if possible, just as there was a sectional meeting of the Woman's Section at the State War conference.

"This is a suggestion; it would seem that there should be general discussion of the woman's part of war activities, possibly led by the Woman Member of the Council talks by sub-chairmen; special emphasis given to the registration and food activities, together with discussion of the plan of the woman's organization."

The Board of Directors of the Indiana Federated Clubs will meet at the Claypool, Indianapolis, January 10, 1918 at 10 o'clock.

MARRIED HAPPINESS RUINED BY QUARRELS

FAMILIES ARE BROKEN UP BECAUSE OF NERVES

Doctors claim a man or woman with a strong nervous system has complete control of happiness. It is only those who are played out by overwork, worry, excesses, and thoughtless dissipation that are quarrelsome and disappointed in life. Do not condemn them, their nerves are starved, they are depleted of life and energy and no thought is given to supply them with food nerve energy to make them calm, strong and controllable. The foolish waste of nerve force turns a cheerful happy person to the grinch that accounts for so many separations. Nature requires aid and Phosphated Iron is necessary in such conditions of nervousness, because it contains the vital elements of iron and Phosphorous and powerful vegetable extracts, the very "food help" the nervous system must have if we are to correct degenerate muscles, that sleeplessness and tired all in feeling, lack of energy, ambition and cheerfulness. Phosphated Iron gets at the root of these troubles because it feeds the blood and nerve centers, it does this naturally and persistently, and cannot fail to strengthen your vitality, energy and renew the efficiency of body and mind. Special Notice—To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you tablets or pills.—PITMAN & WILSON and leading Druggists Everywhere. Rushville, Ind.—(Adv.)

IS PROMOTED TO RANK OF CORPORAL

Arthur Pulliam of Co. M, 26th Infantry, A. E. F., Writes Mother of His Advancement

HE SEES A RUSHVILLE BOY

Sends Mrs. Pulliam and Mrs. Selman Webb Many Beautiful Gifts From France

Arthur Pulliam with Company M, of the 26th Infantry of the American expeditionary forces in France has sent his mother, Mrs. Ida Pulliam, and Mrs. Selman Webb several beautiful gifts from France. They are pale blue silk handkerchiefs prettily trimmed and embroidered in bright colors with the flags of the allies and tokens such as "to my mother" embroidered on them by the French girls.

The letter received by Mrs. Pulliam from her son conveys the information that he has been promoted from a first class private to the rank of corporal. One of the letters reads in part as follows:

"Your letter finds me in the best of health and enjoying life fine. I was wanting a watch and gloves. The watches over here are not very good. What you have sent me already is appreciated. You have to pay a big price for a watch over here—that is if you get one which keeps good time.

"I have received some home papers and an Indianapolis Star and was glad to get them. I have found out where Elbert Cox (a Rushville boy) is. He is stationed not very far from us and as soon as I can get a pass I will go up and see him and have a good talk. There are lots of Indiana boys here and it certainly seems good to be with them.

"I have run for the Y. M. C. A. for quite a while and I have lost nothing from the machine, for I have every part of it in my noodle and it will stay there. We have quite a number of machines over here now. We certainly do enjoy the movies at the Y. M. C. A.

In another letter he writes in part as follows:

"Received your most welcome letter and was certainly glad to hear from you. Everything is all right here and I am in the best of health and enjoying life fine.

"Tell Mrs. Cox that I saw Elbert. He is big and fat and is in the best of health. I had a long talk with him.

"I received the box all O. K. and was glad to get the smoking. I have been promoted from first class private to corporal and, believe me, it is some job, but I guess I can handle it all right. I am sending you a couple of pictures of myself and one of our 'trained' mules. I will send you some more of myself and the squad as soon as I can get them finished. I have a camera and take all of them myself."

He closes by saying that the men were having some very cold weather there at the time the letter was written, which was in December.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MUST PREPARE FOR PERIOD AFTER WAR

Educational Campaign Opened Here to Meet Conditions as They Will Exist

JESSIE KITCHEN CHAIRMAN

Necessity of Higher Education Is Emphasized—Local High School Commended

The patriotic duty of young people to procure their educations in preparation for the demands that are going to be made upon them after the war, is emphasized in the bulletin sent to the schools of Indiana by the educational department of the Council of National Defense. The notices sent to each of the schools by Miss Jessie Kitchen, chairman of the educational propaganda committee of the County Council, marks the opening of the campaign which she has been appointed to head.

The appeal sent out by the Council to the students is as follows: The young people of America have answered loyally the call of their country to aid in the defense of democracy and civilization. Students from our schools and colleges, young women as well as young men, have been among the first to volunteer in all lines of service. But the call for service today is not the only call. In the years which are coming, our country and the world will need trained men and women as never before. And this places a heavy responsibility upon the boys and girls of today to lay the foundation for such service by securing the best possible education.

The duty to remain in school to make ready for college was never so great. Do Your Bit, by preparing yourself for useful citizenship. Economize, practice self denial, make sacrifices, in order to secure a thorough education. Be a patriot. Educate yourself today that you may serve your country efficiently tomorrow.

The report sent in by Superintendent J. H. Scholl to the Council of Defense disclosed the fact that the local schools have been very forward in their patriotic enterprises and very successful in their accomplishments. The highest form of patriotism is apparently necessary in the young people to have accomplished the ends that the report show. The school superintendent has urged all of the movements suggested by the Council and instituted a number on his own initiative.

Some of the statements made in the report showing definitely what the Rushville school children are doing are:

"Over the Top," and other war books are being circulated.

Judge Will M. Sparks, Ernest B. Thomas, Robert E. Mansfield, and soldiers home on furloughs from several of the training camps have made patriotic talks at the schools.

Service flags have been presented for the soldiers, for the Red Cross, and for the Red Triangle boys.

Thirty-eight out of 176 boys pledged themselves to be among the "First Hundred Thousand" and earn ten dollars for the army Y. M. C. A.

Sixty-eight girls are banded together for knitting and sewing and other war relief work.

Twenty-five girls have knitted sweaters.

Forty-two copies of the Literary Digest are taken by pupils and 26 copies of the Independent. One day in each history and English class, war and current topics are studied by the pupils.

Institutes have been shortened to save fuel.

The school children succeeded in getting 500 food pledge cards signed and distributed the literature for the movement.

The school is a member of the State Council of Defense, through the efforts of Dr. Sherman Davis.

J. Raymond Schmidt of Indianapolis, prohibition state chairman and member of the Indiana Dry Federation will conduct a county prohibition conference in the sheriff's office at the court house Tuesday, January 15 at ten o'clock and at one o'clock.

Mr. Schmidt will conduct a prohibition rally at the United Brethren church in Gwynneville at 7:30 p. m. on the same day.

Much of Million Pounds Xmas Cheer Is Practical

31,341 Mail Sacks Carried Gifts to Sammies in France at Time
When Shipping is Crowded

BATTLESHIP COMES TO AID

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—More than 1,000,000 pounds of Christmas cheer went to American soldiers in France in 31,341 mail sacks. Much of this holiday cargo was of a useful character. Much of this "cheer"
would have gone over in time in any event. Otherwise the demand for cargo space for 1,181,055 pounds of
"Christmas gifts" at a time when every ton of shipping is needed as never before for vital and practical was service no doubt would have been refused. The common sense of the folk back home joined with their good hearts to provide useful offerings, things suited to the actual program several times, discussing "Standardization of Dress," and other topics relating to better living.

Will H. Hays, president of the States Council of Defense, will speak the afternoon of January 15, to the live stock section meeting with several breeders' associations.

In addition to those enumerated,
a large number of federal and state workers will be on the program, and many practical farmers and stock raisers from over the state will speak. Practical demonstrations will be given with many talks, and something of interest to every farmer and stockman in Hoosierdom will be given.

In addition to the features offered for the benefit of dairymen, beef cattle breeders and feeders, poultrymen, grain growers, fruit growers, and all housewives, a complete program will be given for boys and girls.

The case of the state against Isaac Boring, who was charged with assault and battery, has been dismissed on account of the death of the defendant.

needs of the soldiers in France.

The United States Government not only handled the huge Christmas mail for the soldiers abroad without delay, but sent some 21,000 sacks of
the "cheer" mail on a battleship,
thus in large part, relieving the regular shipping channels of the burden. In this way the Federal Government demonstrated its own appreciation of the immense problem
involved in separating the essential
from the nonessential in time of war.
While everybody is well pleased to think of Christmas cheer carried over-sea to American soldiers, at the same time the soldiers themselves
would be the last to suggest that shipping ways be clogged or obstructed, or that war materials or relief supplies be delayed while Christmas presents or mere "Cheer"
for soldiers monopolize the right of way.

TELL FOLKS AT HOME TO "FOLLOW DIRECTIONS"

Leaflets Issued by Government Sent to State Council of Defense For Distribution

GIVE PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Twenty thousand War Service leaflets have been received by the Indiana Food Administration for distribution in support of the food conservation movement.

The leaflets, appropriately printed and prepared, contain practical suggestions for home service including the conservation of staples, substitution of nutritious foods, why fat and sugar as well as wheat must be saved and what must be done to prevent a milk famine.

"Follow directions," is the fugle call that appears in conclusion, as the best advice available for the "folks at home" who want to help defeat the central empires in the great war.

LIBERTY BONDS NOT EXCHANGED

In Payment for Merchandise Is The Request of Secretary McAdoo
of Indiana Merchants

TAKE BONDS AT PREMIUM

Bonds Taken in Exchange Must be Sold Immediately—Depressing
Market Price of Issue

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Indiana merchants who have been advertising their willingness to accept liberty bonds in payment for their wares, are asked by the Indiana
State Council of Defense to desist.
The request comes from William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the United States treasury. Mr. McAdoo presents his reasons for the request in the following authorized statement:

"It has been brought to my attention that numbers of merchants
throughout the country are offering to take Liberty Loan bonds of the first and second issue at par, or even
in some cases at a premium, in exchange for merchandise. While I have no doubt that these merchants are actuated by patriotic motives, I am sure that they have failed to consider the effect which the acceptance of the offers would have upon
the situation.

"We are making the strongest effort to have these Government bonds, purchased for permanent investment
by the people at large, to be paid for out of the past or future savings of those who buy them. Purchases
thus made not only result in providing funds for the uses of the Government, but they also effect a conservation of labor and material.

When the bonds are exchanged for merchandise, it defeats the primary object of their sale, it discourages
thrift and increases expenditures,
thus depriving the Government of labor and material needed for war purposes.

"In addition to this, such bonds
when taken in exchange for merchandise must in most cases be immediately sold in the open market.

This naturally tends to depress the market price of the issue and makes it less easy to sell future issues at the same rate.

"I hope that the merchants of the country, upon a more careful consideration of this subject, will discontinue their efforts to sell merchandise and take Liberty bonds in payment."

Mrs. C. M. Yocum of Kansas City,
former teacher of the Loyal Daughters Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian church has written a letter to the class which will be read Sunday morning at the regular meeting by Mrs. Walter Frazee, teacher. A good attendance is desired.

NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE

Rushville Women Have Learned The Cause of Many Mysterious Pains
And Aches

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy headaches, and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better
care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well-recommended by Rushville people. Read this case:
Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 824 N. Arthur St., Rushville, says: "I have had kidney trouble and I certainly appreciate what a serious complaint it is and how severely one can suffer from it.
My trouble began with a dull, dragging pain across my kidneys and over my hips. I was unable to do my housework for a week and was in misery. Others of my family had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results, so I got some from Lytle's Drug Store. I started using Doan's and the pain in my back soon disappeared."

It can now be had in tablet form for 60 cents. All druggists. Send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for trial package tablets.

GOSHEN, IND.—"When I was a young girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. This caused me to become all run-down, weak and nervous. My mother gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I have never been troubled since. I am now the mother of four strong, healthy children and I have always taken this medicine during expectancy and afterward to give me strength, which it always did. I consider I was very fortunate in knowing of 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Mrs. Mary Goss, 615 South 11th Street.
LOGANSPOUT, IND.—"My husband and I are both enthusiastic users of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. We have found them to be extremely beneficial in relieving us of sick headaches, sluggish liver and constipation. They are very mild, but always effective. I am very glad indeed to recommend the 'Pellets' to anyone in need of such medicine."—Mrs. C. S. STRAHLE, 421 Burlington Ave.

HOW MUCH FOOD IN U. S. LARDERS

This Is What First Year End Inventory Provided for Congress Is to Find Out

WHAT RESULTS WILL SHOW

Persons Willfully Failing or Making False Returns Subject to Fine And Sentence

How much food has Uncle Sam in his national larder with which to start the New Year? How adequately can he feed until harvest time his many millions of civilians and soldiers? Will it be necessary during the coming twelve months for his citizens to eat war bread? Can he furnish the share which he ought of the daily ration needed by the fighting men of the allies? And can he supplement somewhat, perhaps, the meager fare of the friendly neutrals to whom the war has brought the pinch of hunger?

These are the big and vital questions, so important to the conduct of the war, which the bureau of markets of the United States department of Agriculture is seeking to answer by carrying out the war emergency food survey provided for by the last congress. All over the country today first steps are being taken to answer these questions. Hundreds of thousands of persons in control of food supplies, large and small, are filling out schedules mailed to them by the army of employees which the Bureau of Markets has assembled in Washington to conduct the big year-end food inventory. These schedules will show the quantities of more than one hundred different foods on hand December 31, 1917, quantities on hand December 31, 1916, for comparison, and the quantities shipped out by freight or express that have not been delivered to the consignee. To the totals of these figures will be added quantities held by retail food dealers in certain counties where store-to-store canvasses are being made. The latter intensive surveys will be made in order that the figures for the entire country can be checked.

In addition, about 40,000 selected families will report on special schedules regarding the stocks of food on hand, and the ways in which they utilize certain food products. These figures will be used as a basis upon which to estimate the amount of food in the more than 20 million homes of the country. When all this information has been tabulated, Uncle Sam will have available for the first time, sorely needed data upon which to formulate plans for efficient production and wise use of the munition which is of greatest importance in winning the war—food.

To guard against any food handlers being missed by failure to include them in the mailing list, the Bureau of Markets has sent supplies of schedules to its agents throughout the country for distribution, and at the same time has announced that all individuals and concerns handling foods who do not receive schedules through the mails by January 2, will be expected to

Says it is suicide to cut corns, and tells how they lift right out

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezezone is sticky it dries in a moment, and seems to simply shrivel up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die from infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but cut this out and make him try it.

CORN FLOUR DISPOSED OF

Barnard Ordered. Supply of Dutch Removed

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Two hundred and fifty tons of corn flour which had been in storage in the Fishback warehouses in Indianapolis owned by the Dutch government, has been ordered removed by Dr. Harry E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, to prevent its loss through souring. The flour was purchased from the American Hominy company and was to have been exported, but before it could be moved the embargo ordered by the United States government, prevented such disposition of it. Agents for the Dutch government were directed by Dr. Barnard to dispose of it at once and as a result it is being made into stock feed by the Baltimore Pearl hominy company, effecting a big saving.

4 DAY SHORT COURSE WILL BE IN 7 TOWNS

Purdue Professors Will Give 15 Lectures During Course—Car of Live Stock to Demonstrate

12,000 Expected to Attend

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 11.—The program was completed today for the four day short course which will be given in seven Indiana towns the latter part of the winter under the direction of the extension department of the University of Purdue.

Regular professors at Purdue will give fifteen lectures during the four days. A car load of livestock will be carried on the tour to demonstrate points in the lectures. Talks will be given on dairying, soil and crop improvement, poultry and home economics.

The dates for the meetings are: Oakland City, Jan. 22 to 25; Orleans Jan. 29 to Feb. 1; Greensburg, Feb. 5 to 8; Connersville, Feb. 12 to 15; Monroeville, Feb. 19 to 22; Columbia City, Feb. 26 to March 1; Rochester, Mar. 5 to 8.

Twelve thousand farmers, their wives and children will attend the meetings, according to estimates. Last year, fewer places were visited and 8,000 attended.

The tour is held in connection with the annual short course which will be given at Lafayette starting Jan. 14.

apply to the local agencies for copies. Congress put teeth in the act authorizing the making of a food survey by providing that persons willfully failing to make returns when called upon, or willfully making incorrect returns, will be subjected to a fine of not more than $1000, or imprisonment for not more than one year. The Bureau of Markets, however, is counting on receiving the willing cooperation of all persons in possession of food-stuffs who should make reports, and cases in which it will be necessary to make use of the law's teeth.

Within a few days, the first of the more than three-quarters of a million schedules will begin pouring back to Washington, bearing the information which congress was willing to spend $600,000 to obtain. In Washington, the schedules will be tabulated as promptly as possible by a staff of special clerks. When information on the last of the hundred or more foods under investigation have been tabulated Uncle Sam can apply consumption figures obtained from other investigation and find approximately what his food balance is from time to time. Then he can take steps to ward off any threatened shortage, can share his store intelligently with the allies, and can, in short, consider with his eyes open all the problems of his commissary department. Equally as important as caring for his existing stocks of food, he can plan wisely a production program for the years ahead, sufficient to fill his own wants and to supplement the war-depleted output of his companies in arms.

SOLDIERS ARTS TAUGHT RUSH BOYS

Learn First Steps in Soldiering, E. R. Wagoner at Camp Shelby, Miss. Says in Letter

MANY PROMOTIONS MADE

High Prices Charged Soldiers in Southern Towns Cause Dissatisfaction Among Men

That soldiers in the United States army can obtain any end they desire through hard work and study is the version of Everett R. Wagoner of Company C, 152nd Infantry stationed at Camp Shelby. In the following letter which the infantryman has written, he speaks most enthusiastically of the work which the men are doing at the camp.

Rush county boys stationed at Camp Shelby have learned the first step in becoming real soldiers—that of being satisfied with our lot and the work which is laid down for us to accomplish. As a result a number of Rush county's soldiers who left home in the summer months with no rank or title except that of private have attained various positions of note. Several corporals have been appointed as well as a number of sergeants in the various outfits.

"Every one is well pleased with the training which military life is offering. It gives a certain outlook on life which could not be obtained otherwise, and although our lives are not one round of pleasures we are satisfied and enjoy the work. Trench digging, company drill and school composes our work for each day.

"Every one in our outfit had as pleasant a holiday season as we could wish, away from home and the Red Cross did much in making the Christmas of those who had no one to bring Christmas cheer to them, a happy day.

"There is one feeling in our camp, however, which shouldn't exist. The southern towns, by charging big prices for their goods are growing rich as a result of the purchases of the northern soldiers, and as a result there is again a dim recollection of the feeling which must have existed years ago when the north and south took up arms against one another.

"We were on the combat range a short time ago and as we were close to the artillery training camp we received a slight impression of real war. The artillery fire passed over us almost constantly as we worked, the old shells singing in the air as they passed. We have had some gas instructions which are very interesting. The bayonet fencing is also part of the daily drill which the infantry seem to enjoy to a great extent.

"Some of the fellows from the northern part of Rush county called on friends in our company recently and we were certainly glad to see them as we don't see the men from home who are stationed in other companies very often."

SERVICE FLAG PRESENTED

Judge Will M. Sparks delivered the address at the patriotic service conducted Sunday at the Methodist Protestant church in New Salem, when the Sunday school presented a service flag to the church. The flag contained nine stars. As the flag was being raised the names of the boys who have joined the colors were called out. The enlisted men from the church include Earl Spilman, Herbert Nash, Raymond Higgins, Everett McHenry, Edward West, Roy Culbertson, Caremel McKinney, Fred Spacey and Dallas Hardwick.

Relatives of Frank Owens of this city, now with Battery E, 15th Field Artillery, believe that he is either on the way or has arrived in France. They last heard from him four weeks ago last Tuesday. At that time he was at Camp Merritt near Jersey City.

PART COVERED BY INSURANCE

Blaze is Discovered in Lineback's

Spreads Quickly

ORIGIN IS NOT DETERMINED

Seven Business Rooms Are Destroyed and Very Little of Contents of Any Saved

Business houses located in the half block destroyed were: Forrest Kennedy's restaurant, J. A. Lineback's tailor shop, the Carthage Natural Gas company's office, Forrest Rawl's barber shop, James Cardfield's blacksmith shop, William Bundy's repair shop and Mrs. Alice Hale's Five and Ten Cent store. Mrs. Hale formerly conducted a similar business establishment in Rushville.

The fire originated in Lineback's tailor shop and spread quickly to adjoining rooms. It was discovered at 10:30 o'clock and the flames were not all extinguished until two o'clock this morning.

The flames were fought with the Carthage motor fire truck, but it was unable to prevent the spread of the flames through the whole half block.

The only thing that saved the west half of the block was the fire doors on the Henley building across the alley from the Kennedy restaurant. The fire doors together with the fact that the building is built of brick,

A half block of business houses in Mill street, east of Main, in Carthage were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at $17,000, but may prove to be much greater as the buildings burned down and practically all the contents were lost.

Communications with Carthage were cut off today because of the snow storm, but it was said by persons who had talked with Carthage people by phone early today that the loss was only partly covered by insurance.

FIRE IN SHED CAUSES LOSS CLOSE TO $500Destroys Joe Dickman's Household Goods in Storage and Upholstering Tools Thursday Night

ORIGIN IS NOT EXPLAINED

Approximately $500 damage was done last night when a shed back of Joe Dickman's house in North Morgan street was destroyed by fire between ten and eleven o'clock last night. Some of Dickman's household goods stored there, a baseburner, some furniture being repaired by Mr. Dickman and all his tools used in the upholstering business were destroyed.

The cause of the fire can not be determined. There was no fire in the building and nothing from which a fire could start. The call for the fire department was delayed. The man who discovered it could not work the fire alarm box and telephoned the call in just as another alarm was being sounded.

Mr. Dickman had no insurance except on his household goods, but he is in doubt about whether he can collect any insurance, because that which was destroyed was in storage. A portion of the shed, where some coal and coal stoves were stored, was not destroyed.

GUARD MAKES PROGRESS

Twenty-Five at Weekly Drill on Thursday Night

Twenty-five members of the Rushville home guard unit were present at the weekly drill meeting which was held Thursday evening in the corridors of the court house. The members of the unit who attend the drill meetings regularly have become well acquainted with the military terms and with the infantry drill and have made rapid progress during the weeks they have practiced. Capt. Sparks is anxious for the company to be recruited to war strength and urges men throughout the county to join the organization.

NEW NOTE STRUCK
AT THE INSTITUTESFarmer's Opportunity to Aid in Winning War and Best Methods to Use Emphasized

INSTITUTE AT ORANGE SCHOOL

L. C. Thompson and Mrs. Tuttle of Purdue Speak, Officers Elected and Prizes Awarded

A new note is being struck in the farmer's institutes of this year from those of any previous year. The farmer's opportunity in aiding in the winning of the war and the best methods to employ to attain these ends have been emphasized in the excellent institutes that have been held to date. Yesterday, good crowds were present at the Orange township institute held in the school building at Orange when Mrs. Tuttle and L. C. Thompson of Purdue university, interested their hearers with topics of practical interest to farmers.

Approximately 250 attended the farmer's institute held at the Moscow school house today. Mr. Thornburg gave an instructive talk on the corn situation. Mr. Thornburg comes from Winchester and is well posted on the subject. Marion District, county emergency demonstration agent, gave an interesting talk on "Soil Fertility." The domestic science class of the school served dinner to the visitors at noon.

Both of the speakers from Purdue took part in the afternoon and morning session at the Orange institute.

Mr. Thompson spoke at the morning session on "The Advantages of an Agricultural Education" when the chances that are open to an up-to-date farmer were emphasized. An appeal was made to the young men especially to learn the most modern methods. The farmers were urged to "get together," by Mr. Thompson in his talk at the afternoon meeting on the subject, "The Business End of Co-operation." The greater results that could be attained by their working in unison and in a business-like manner and the great need for co-operation at this particular time were among the points made by the speaker.

Mrs. Tuttle, in her two talks, dealt with the home and church problems. In the morning talk on "Rural Church Efficiency," the problem of keeping young people actively interested in the church was presented and solutions to the problem were offered by Mrs. Tuttle. A number of methods of building up interest in the rural churches were suggested by the speaker. To give boys and girls on the farms the very best home influence was the plea made by Mrs. Tuttle in the talk she made at the afternoon session.

A "Hoover" lunch was served at noon. A delicious basket dinner had been furnished and it was served in such a way that there would be the smallest possible waste. One hundred and forty-five attended the morning session and 212 were at the afternoon meeting.

E. B. THOMAS SPEAKS BRIEFLY

Presentation Speech Made by Ralph Plessinger and Supt. J. H.
Scholl Accepts It

"Don't think you have done a little thing, boys and girls," said E. B. Thomas chairman of the Red Cross at the high school this morning after the Junior class had presented the school with a Red Cross service flag bearing 105 crosses, "you have done a tremendous thing. You have put into this cord of patriotism and loyalty one strand, you have put in some of your own heart beats. It is not only the dollar that you have given for membership. Some one has said that the war would be won when American spirit was mobilized and you have contributed toward the mobilization of that spirit. If this were but a single act, it would be small but it is one of a series of acts that boys and girls over the entire nation are doing and that cord of patriotism of which you are a part counts."

The beautiful flag bordered with blue with a large Red Cross in the center and a small cross for each of the 105 students who belong to Red Cross, had been made by the girls of the Junior class and was presented by Ralph Plessinger, a member of the class who spoke with originality and with the fervor of patriotism. At the close of his remarks, Miss Lena Vaughn, dressed as a Red Cross nurse, cut the cord which held the flag concealed and the flag unfolded before the students who voiced their appreciation and depth of feeling by their applause.

A "Tailor-made poem" written by Miss May Taylor and read by Miss Mary Ellen Hughes, followed on the program. Superintendent J. H. Scholl accepted the flag in behalf of the students and teachers with an appropriate talk in which he complimented the students for their exhibitions of patriotism and loyalty by the presentation of the three flags, the American flag, the service flag and the Red Cross flag.

"You have warmed the hearts of the teachers and patrons of this school," he said, "by these fine acts. The American flag which one of the classes has given to the school is the emblem of the nation which is having an influence on the entire world and the emblem under which the nations are all to be united, in the cause of freedom. As we look at the service flag bearing stars for each of our students with the colors we think of 'tramp, tramp, tramp the boys are marching.' We think of the remarks that each of the boys who have returned from the camps have made to the school that 'they like it and they are fighting for freedom.' The American flag represents patriotism, the service flag represents the marching of our boys to war and the Red Cross flag represents mercy—mercy not only to our allies but to our enemies. It has been presented because you students have expressed yourselves by joining Red Cross."

In closing Superintendent Scholl urged all of the students who do not belong to Red Cross to join. He also showed the Red Cross flag of the Junior high school on which 69 stars were placed out of the 105 students in that department. The one hundred and five stars on the high school flag were arranged in the shape of a Red Triangle for the Red Triangle boys in the school. Miss Dennis and Miss Denny assisted in making the flag.

Ralph Plessinger, in presenting the flag spoke as follows: "When it comes to patriotism, one will have to search a long time before he

Classified by Local Board

The names of registrants classified yesterday as well as names of those whose claims have been sent to the district board, will be found on page nine of today's issue.

Rulings on the cases of eighteen registrants under the selective conscription law were received from the district board today by the local board. Seventeen of them were on agricultural claims and one was on appeal on a dependency claim, the local board being sustained in each instance. One of the registrants classified on agricultural grounds also had a dependency claim, but was left in class one.

Questionnaires are being returned at the rate of more than seventy a day so that there is little doubt but that practically all of them will be filed out and in the hands of the local board by tomorrow night. The legal advisory board and associate members have announced that they will not work after tomorrow and all registrants are urged to have their questionnaires completed by that time.

A score or more questionnaires have been found incomplete or wrong in one way or the other. Some questions have not been answered correctly and others have not been answered at all. In some instances signatures were not made where they should have been. The local board today sent notices to registrants whose questionnaires were not complete to have them call and make the desired correction.

The board ruled on sixty-five cases yesterday. This makes a total of 761 cases acted on so far, 332 of which have been placed in class one by the board. Thirty-nine were added to this class yesterday. Three were put in class two, one in class three, eight in class four and fourteen in class five.

Horace Jones, who was called for physical examination Tuesday, but did not appear until yesterday, was passed by the physician member of the board, Dr. W. S. Coleman.

Of the seventeen agricultural claims ruled on by the district board eight were denied and the registrants left in class one, three were placed in class two, two in class three and four in class four. Edgar E. Crull, who filed a dependency claim but was put in class one by the local board, was left in class one by the district board. Elmer Kinslow, who was put in class two on an

Funeral Will be Held Sunday—
Sister Suicide Few Years Ago

Charles B. Brown, 31, of Shelby county, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown of Walker township ended his life Wednesday by drinking a quantity of carbolac acid on a lonely road in Johnson county.

The place where the body was found is half a mile over the Shelby county line in Johnson county. The discovery was made by men who were operating a fodder shredder in that vicinity. The body was found shortly after two o'clock in the afternoon and indications were that the man had died about noon as he had been seen along the road about eleven o'clock.

Despondency over the condition of his health is believed to have been the cause of the act. Mr. Brown had been in ill health for more than ten years and had returned home only two weeks ago from a hospital in Indianapolis where he had been taking treatment.

The deceased is survived by a widow and three small children. The body was taken to the home of his parents south of Manilla from where the funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon. This is the second death from suicide which has occurred in the Brown family. Miss Viola Brown took poison while residing in Illinois a few years ago. She was a sister of Charles Brown.

It was stated that the Ukrainian delegates were presenting their demands.

May Agree to Some Terms

Washington, Jan. 11.—Germany will not agree now to more than the first four or five of President Wilson's peace terms. Authorities were convinced of this today in the light of preliminary Tanton press comments on his speech.

Amsterdam, Jan. 11.—The Russo-German peace conference at Brest-Litovsk have been terminated. The sitting was suspended when the Germans refused to transfer negotiations to neutral soil. Bolshevik foreign minister, Trotsky moved the conclusion of the meeting.

The German delegates announced also that all plans for a general peace meeting were considered as definitely off, because of the failure of the entente powers to respond within 10 days to the invitation to participate. Count Czernin, Austrian foreign minister, announced that efforts of the central powers were willing to negotiate a separate peace with Prussia.

COUNTY IS "SNOWED UNDER"

Indianapolis, Indiana, Jan. 11.—Snow, accompanied by a dry wind, that started falling early today in Indiana increased steadily until noon when it reached the proportion of a blizzard. The fuel situation was desperate, many schools in Indianapolis and other cities being forced to close. With colder weather in prospect intense suffering is bound to result according to officials.

The heavy snow which began falling early this morning has been general over the entire county and the roads have been badly impaired by the snow banks. Although a cold wave is predicted for tonight, this afternoon the temperature had not fallen to any great degree. Coal dealers have not received any coal today and having no prospects for any in the immediate future, it is predicted blizzard strikes the suffering from the lack of fuel in the city and county will be intense.

INDIANANS SUPPORT CHILDREN OF FRANCE

As Part of Red Cross War Relief Work 25,000 Children Being Cared For

RECEIVE MEDICAL CARE

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Of the more than five hundred thousand Indianans who have recently become members of the American Red Cross, a conspicuous State Representation, in the sixteen million national membership secured through the recent drive, are contributing directly at this time to the support of twenty five thousand children of France. This is purely incidental to greater work of war relief to which the Red Cross is committed.

In addition 700 children are receiving complete medical care at the hands of the American Red Cross doctors and 3,060 are being treated at the medical dispensaries of the American Relief society. 20,309 orphans are being aided by the Red Cross directly or indirectly 6000 Belgian children, of whom it has 1000 in complete charge are being aided by the Red Cross.

This child welfare work is only a small part of the work of mercy which the American Red Cross is carrying on among the civilians of the devastated counties. The support of its millions of members in this country and its hundred of thousands in Indiana, makes this work possible.

13 WAREHOUSES FOR RED CROSS

Establishments Like Department Stores Set up in France to Store Red Cross Goods

SUPPLIES ARE SENT DIRECT

French and Belgian Men Unfit for Duty are Workmen Under American College Boys

Washington, Jan. 11.—One of the comparatively trifling little detail tasks of the American Red Cross in connection with its $100,000,000 war job overseas was to build thirteen giant department stores at various places in France.

These big establishments are used for the storage and distribution of the millions of dollars worth of Red Cross supplies flowing to France from this country at the rate of 15,000 tons a month.

Cables announcing the completion of these stores and detailing some of the uses to which they are put were received here.

The Red Cross calls them warehouses, but cables that their contents are as numerous and as varied as those of an American department store. One of them, in Paris, is so big that freight cars are run right into the building and unloaded.

It is to these big stores that the war knitting you do and the bandages you roll, are sent direct.

"To serve the American troops and the hundreds of war hospitals behind the French firing line, and to reach the thousands of French refugees, the Red Cross has established this system of thirteen warehouses," said the cable.

"This new war relief distribution system has been organized since the arrival of the Red Cross Commission, in Paris, in June.

"Six of the warehouses have been located in Paris, which serves as the center of the distribution system. Ten others are located in departments outside the capital and from these supplies are distributed by motor trucks, wagons, and every available means of transportation, to hospitals and other institutions.

"A large proportion of these supplies is received directly from the United States and is forwarded by the Red Cross Supply Service from chapter work-rooms and from relief societies affiliated with the Red Cross. Owing to the great shortage of ocean tonnage, large quantities of supplies have been purchased by the Red Cross Commission in France.

"The stocks of goods carried by the warehouses include every kind of medical supplies, drugs and surgical instruments for the use of hospital staffs. Foodstuffs, clothing, building materials, plowing implements and tools are also being imported in large quantities for the assistance of French refugees.

"Red Cross warehouses in Paris alone have a capacity of three and a half million cubic feet and can take care of sixty thousand tons of supplies at a time.

"American college men, many of whom formerly served as drivers in the American Ambulance, are directing the work, while the force of workmen is recruited from veteran French soldiers and Belgian men no longer fit for military duty. The French Government and the municipal authorities of Paris are co-operating with the Commission in the securing of labor and in maintaining the transportation service."

Washington, Jan. 11.—The federal farm loan system was saved from disaster today when the house adopted a conference report authorizing the secretary of the treasury to buy $200,000,000 worth of farm loan bonds in the next two years. The senate has agreed to the report.

HALF BLOCK IN CARTHAGE BURNED DOWN

The origin of the fire had not been determined today, according to reports coming from Carthage. It started in Lineback's tailor shop. There was no disposition to believe it was of incendiary, but not many weeks ago an attempt was made to set fire to a business house in Carthage.

saved a much larger loss, because if the fire had started in the west half of the Mill street block, it would have spread to business houses in Main street and the larger part of the business district might have been destroyed.

Some fear was entertained that the Henley lumber yards, a large frame structure occupying the block in Mill street east of that portion burned, would catch fire, but the wind was with the fire fighters, blowing the sparks south and west. If the planing mill had caught fire, it would have burned quickly because there are large quantities of lumber stored there.

The fire was a complete loss for all of the places destroyed with the exception of the barber shop and restaurant. All of the equipment and furniture of the barber shop was saved except the mirrors. About one-third of the restaurant stock, furniture, dishes and silverware was saved.

A letter was read before the institute from Purdue university urging the conservation by the farmers of their food supplies. A unanimous vote of the audience was voiced to co-operate in this measure suggested by Purdue.

SUFFRAGE BILL GOES TO SENATE

Having Been Passed by Narrow Margin by House, it Goes to Higher Legislative Body

VOTE IN HOUSE IS 274 TO 136

Whole Indiana Delegation Supports Amendment—An Interview With Rep. Elliott

Washington, Jan. 11—By the narrow margin of a fraction of a vote, the suffrage amendment passed the house last night and now goes to the senate. If passed by the senate, it will be submitted to the states for passage.

Indiana voted solidly in the house for the resolution. Representatives Merrill Moores of Indianapolis and George K. Denton of Evansville being last minute converts to the cause. Women, who packed the galleries, broke into song when the result was known.

The proposed amendment received 274 votes, with 136 opposition votes cast. For passage the resolution required two-thirds of the total vote cast. The resolution received two-thirds of one vote more than the required number.

The fact that the amendment nearly failed was a cause of surprise to the suffragists. They had boasted in advance of the ballot that they would have from ten to twenty votes to the good. Even President Wilson's last hour declaration for the federal amendment, after having been an advocate of state rights, did not seem to have the influence that had been anticipated. The fact that the republican caucus on the measure Wednesday night is considered as having saved the resolution from defeat.

Representative James R. Mann, the Republican leader, and Representative Henry A. Barnhart of the Thirteenth Indiana district, both left sick beds to vote for suffrage. It was the first time that Mr. Mann had visited the house chamber in several weeks, and his appearance was the cause for an affectionate demonstration, participated in by republicans and democrats alike without regard to their suffrage alignment. Mr. Mann has been in a hospital at Baltimore and he is thin and pale from his long sickness.

Mr. Barnhart was brought from Providence Hospital, Washington, in a cab at the hour arranged for the balloting. After he had cast his vote he returned to the hospital, where he will remain for a few days longer in recuperating from the efforts of an operation which he underwent two weeks ago yesterday. He was greeted by many of his colleagues as he went to his seat.

Representative Richard N. Elliott of the Sixth Indiana district, who is a member of the woman suffrage committee, and Representative William E. Cox of the third Indiana district were among the score or more of speakers heard during the 5-hour debate. Mr. Elliott spoke for three minutes, the time being yielded to him by Representative Jeannette Rankin of Montana, who had charge of the republican side of the suffrage fight.

"I am proud to come from a state whose representatives will vote unanimously for woman's rights," said Mr. Elliott. "And Indiana did not wait for the sudden and last minute conversion of the president to the cause of the federal amendment to reach its decision. I have no criticism for the president in seeing the light so late. On the country, I wish to welcome him to the ranks, and to wish that his conversion will be like the conversion of St. Paul and that he will become a master worker in the vineyard of the Lord for suffrage."

could find a school that will surpass R. H. S. I think that I have emphatic evidence to prove the fact. To my surprise, the Sophomores were the first to realize that the school was not complete without a flag. Next the Seniors presented to us this large service flag bearing 60 stars, showing that R. H. S. is well represented in the army. And if one will investigate the standing of these men, he will find that a great number of them are officers, which speaks well for their career in high school. And the boys who could not go, eagerly did their best by subscribing to the Y. M. C. A., and the girls not to be outdone by the boys, organized a 'Girl's Club,' which will do all in its power to help win this war. But the thing that brings out the patriotism of the school the most is the manner in which the pupils joined the Red Cross. The Red Cross ministers not only to our fighting forces and those of our allies and enemies, but also goes wherever there is suffering. Everybody cannot be in the army and navy but the Red Cross gives an opportunity for all. In order that we may be constantly inspired by the patriotism that has been shown in our schools, I take pleasure in presenting to you the Red Cross service flag."

The poem read by Miss Hughes was as follows:

We're at war, kind friends,
For months or years it may be,
For Germany must make amends
To our neighbors across the sea,
We are sending the cream of our nation,

Men who are young and strong,
And this Red Cross organization
Must help to right the wrong.

Each pupil belonging to R. H. S.
Must earnestly do his best,
While the girls will knit and sew, I guess

The boys must do the rest,
They can till the soil and raise the wheat,
Till it doubles o'er and o'er,
For if our soldiers have plenty to eat
We'll win and ask no more.

So for the boys who have gone to the trenches,
That we may stay safely at home,
Not make just only Red Crosses
Nor only one thing alone;
But let us knit socks and sweaters
And make bandages by the score,
That all their wounds and bruises
May feel better than ever before.

And when the war is over,
From France, or wherever they be,
May they all return and live with us
In this land they have helped keep free.

ARCADIA TO PLAY RUSHVILLE TONIGHT

Misunderstanding Regarding Date Causes Postponement of Game With Newcastle

CURTAIN RAISER AT SEVEN

Arcadia will play the local high school basketball five tonight instead of Newcastle, as has been announced. The change has been made because of some misunderstanding in the date of the game with Newcastle and when it was found that Newcastle had another date, the game with Arcadia, was booked. Tonight's game will be the first the locals have ever played with this team but it is understood that they have a pretty good record.

The game will be called promptly at 7:45 o'clock giving time for the visiting team to reach home this evening. Orange and the second high school team will play the curtain raiser at 7 o'clock.

Arcadia is located near Noblesville and the team there is a part of the Hamilton county Athletic League which has a very good standing. The Newcastle game for February 15 which was to have been played at Newcastle, has also been called off. It is probable that another game will be booked for that date.

Next Friday night the locals go to Greensburg and the following Friday night, they will play Connersville at Connersville. The next game on the local floor will be with Liberty on the first of February. Ross Smith of Indianapolis will referee the game tonight.

The school will be a missionary program dealing with the work of the medical missionary. Dr. H. C. Parsons will tell of the work and Miss Margaret Giffin will narrate a missionary story.

+Arlington Methodist: Bible school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching by the pastor, 10:30; Epworth League, 6:00 p. m., Miss Vivian Hinton leader, subject, "Enlarge the Place of Thy Tent." A patriotic service will be held at 7:00 p. m. There will be short addresses by the pastor and others and a service flag will be dedicated in honor of the young men in the army. In order not to interfere with the work of any other church, or to go contrary to the wishes of any, the parents are requested to say whether their sons' names may be mentioned, and to place the star on the flag honoring the soldier of their home. The pastor has written an encouraging letter to each soldier from this community, as far as he has been able to obtain the address. Patriotic music by the choir and the congregation. Also by a gentleman from Rushville, who will use patriotic disks with his Victrola. All are invited. Everybody is invited to take a small financial interest in the flag.

The Ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a penny supper in the basement of the church on Friday evening, January 18.

Tin foil is also being collected to sell and the proceeds will be turned over to the organization. Although the making of trench candles has not been begun, the girls are considering making these also, in the future.

Account Books Are Necessary Adjuncts Now

They Are Essential These Days Due to Income Tax, Conservation and High Prices. Women Use Them as is Disclosed by Wife Who Answers Financial Question in Husband's Questionnaire.

Account books—every one is using them now-a-days. The income tax, conservation and high prices are all responsible for the systematic methods being adopted for managing ones financial affairs. Farmers have signified their intention of keeping account books for 1918, housewives are purchasing convenient books which are being put out to help keep down expenses and to "watch the corners" and even clerks are keeping expense accounts for 1918.

The income tax makes it a necessity for persons whose incomes are over $1,000 to know the exact amount of the yearly profits. For single men, $1,000 and over is taxed and on married men making $2,000 or more annually the tax is levied. The only answer to the problem of knowing one's exact income is the expense book and the habit of keeping it up to date.

Very convenient little books are being put out by different concerns for the housewives with spaces for the expenditures for each of the household articles. With the present high prices, practical and economical women are keeping up with the price of all household goods so the expense account is less trouble to keep than it would have been several years ago.

The questionnaires recently have brought out the value of an expense account and showed the ability of the housewife as a business manager. A. L. Stewart in filling out the questionnaire asked the man "What were your profits last year?" Before the man had an opportunity to hesitate, his wife spoke up quick as a flash saying, "Five thousand, seven hundred and fifty five dollars and thirty three cents." The remaining figures of the business were just as well imprinted upon her mind although she was not expecting the questions from Mr. Stewart. No doubt, an expense book was the cause for these answers and partially responsible for the well managed farm.

May this be the best year of our Federation. We shall need to adjust our club work to the necessities of the hour.

Our club women are being called as leaders in all patriotic efforts, because they have been trained in leadership and team work.

Let us continue our training schools, the clubs, and realize the full meaning of our Federation Motto: The union of all for the good of all.

Sincerely yours,
Eleanor M. J. Moore

The newest member of the I. F. C. enters with the New Year. The Fort-nightly Club of Elkhart, in the Tenth District was organized in 1909. Its aims are educational and civic. There are twenty-five members. Mrs. T. G. Scott is President, and Mrs. F. E. Nichols is Secretary.

The November and December numbers of the Social Service Review have devoted several columns to the work of the Indiana Clubs. The Editor, Miss Williamson, of Washington, D. C., attended the convention at Ft. Wayne.

The clubs of the state should take more advantage of the opportunities offered for help by the Reciprocity Committee of which Mrs. J. H. Benton of Alexandria is chairman. Write to her for suggestions.

Firemen Are Fabricating For Fighters

Sister Susie Sewing Shirts For Soldiers is Outclassed by Firemen Who Are Now Knitting For Soldiers—Firemen in Rochester, N. Y., Are Among The First.

By GEORGE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 11.—It's a long time between fires. So the firemen knit for the Red Cross. They're doing it all over the country, the Red Cross told the United Press today.

Sister Susie and her well known habit of sewing shirts for soldiers has been outclassed. The firemen are fabricating fragments of fabric for fighters.

Chess, checkers, cards and newspapers pass in time. The substitution of motors for horses in many city fire departments has even relieved the firemen of the task of currying and feeding the horses.

So the firemen knit. One of the first experiments in having firemen knit was in Rochester, N. Y., where George Eastman, the kodak man and a prominent worker in the Rochester Red Cross Chapter, hit upon the idea of enlisting firemen in Red Cross work.

Knitting machines were provided and the men now have competition as to the length of time required to make a sock, and also the quantity that can be turned out in a day. The firemen are very glad to have something to do in their leisure time and are producing a large number of socks.

The possibility of utilizing the leisure time of the thousands of firemen throughout the country has been suggested to the three thousand chapters of the country, and the firemen's assistance in supplying socks to soldiers and sailors will be solicited by the local chapters.

WOMEN TO AID IN WAR COUNCIL WORK

Should Arrange Meetings of Women at Afternoon Session to Discuss Woman's War Activities

WOMEN MUST CO-OPERATE

Indianapolis, Jan. 11.—A special appeal to women members of the County Councils of Defense, to co-operate in every possible way with the arrangements for county war conferences, has been sent out by Mrs. Anne Studebaker Carlisle, head of the Woman's Section of the Indiana Council of Defense. Mrs. Carlisle makes the following recommendation:

Red Cross Notes

A new supply of yarn has been received by Red Cross and will be given out at the headquarters in the court house tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock. The yarn will be given for socks only, since the decision of the executive committee that at this time of the year, socks were most practical. It was decided that by the time the yarn could be purchased by the Red Cross, distributed, knitted into sweaters, wristlets and scarfs that the weather in France would be warmer and the boys would prefer having knitted socks.

The Red Cross membership in the United States has multiplied almost 1,000 times during the last year. One year ago there were 250,000 Americans in Red Cross and today there are 23 million. The statistics were given by E. B. Thomas, chairman of the county chapter, before the high school this morning.

School children in the northern part of the county have made and completely filled a number of comfort kits for the soldiers. The kits which were turned in to the Red Cross headquarters here have been sent to the state headquarters at Indianapolis for distribution.

A desk is needed at the Red Cross headquarters. A roll top desk or any other kind will answer the purpose. Anyone having one they will donate temporarily is asked to call Mrs. Phil Wilk at the headquarters where it will be used in the work room.

A fine crowd of workers was at headquarters yesterday for the opening of the new quarters.

The ladies of the Catholic church sewed at the headquarters this afternoon.

mentation:

"The women war workers in the county should be most active at these conferences of course. There should be a meeting of the women during the afternoon if possible, just as there was a sectional meeting of the Woman's Section at the State War conference.

"This is a suggestion; it would seem that there should be general discussion of the woman's part of war activities, possibly led by the Woman Member; of the Council talks by sub-chairmen; special emphasis given to the registration and food activities, together with discussion of the plan of the woman's organization."

The Board of Directors of the Indiana Federated Clubs will meet at the Claypool, Indianapolis, January 10, 1918 at 10 o'clock.

MARRIED HAPPINESS RUINED BY QUARRELS

FAMILIES ARE BROKEN UP BECAUSE OF NERVES

Doctors claim a man or woman with a strong nervous system has complete control of happiness. It is only those who are played out by overwork, worry, excesses, and thoughtless dissipation that are quarrelsome and disappointed in life. Do not condemn them, their nerves are starved, they are depleted of life and energy and no thought is given to supply them with food nerve energy to make them calm, strong and controllable. The foolish waste of nerve force turns a cheerful happy person to the grinch that accounts for so many separations. Nature requires aid and Phosphated Iron is necessary in such conditions of nervousness, because it contains the vital elements of iron and Phosphorus and powerful vegetable extracts, the very "food help" the nervous system must have if we are to correct degenerate muscles, that sleeplessness and tired all in feeling, lack of energy, ambition and cheerfulness. Phosphated Iron gets at the root of these troubles because it feeds the blood and nerve centers, it does this naturally and persistently, and cannot fail to strengthen your vitality, energy and renew the efficiency of body and mind. -Special Notice-To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you tablets or pills. -PITMAN & WILSON and leading Druggists Everywhere. Rushville, Ind.-(Adv.)

IS PROMOTED TO RANK OF CORPORAL

Arthur Pulliam of Co. M, 26th Infantry, A. E. F., Writes Mother of His Advancement

HE SEES A RUSHVILLE BOY

Sends Mrs. Pulliam and Mrs. Selman Webb Many Beautiful Gifts From France

Arthur Pulliam with Company M, of the 26th Infantry of the American expeditionary forces in France has sent his mother, Mrs. Ida Pulliam, and Mrs. Selman Webb several beautiful gifts from France. They are pale blue silk handkerchiefs prettily trimmed and embroidered in bright colors with the flags of the allies and tokens such as "to my mother" embroidered on them by the French girls. The letter received by Mrs. Pulliam from her son conveys the information that he has been promoted from a first class private to the rank of corporal. One of the letters reads in part as follows: "Your letter finds me in the best of health and enjoying life fine. I was wanting a watch and gloves. The watches over here are not very good. What you have sent me already is appreciated. You have to pay a big price for a watch over here—that is if you get one which keeps good time. "I have received some home papers and an Indianapolis Star and was glad to get them. I have found out where Elbert Cox (a Rushville boy) is. He is stationed not very far from us and as soon as I can get a pass I will go up and see him and have a good talk. There are lots of Indiana boys here and it certainly seems good to be with them. "I have run for the Y. M. C. A. for quite a while and I have lost nothing from the machine, for I have every part of it in my noodle and it will stay there. We have quite a number of machines over here now. We certainly do enjoy the movies at the Y. M. C. A. In another letter he writes in part as follows: "Received your most welcome letter and was certainly glad to hear from you. Everything is all right here and I am in the best of health and enjoying life fine. "Tell Mrs. Cox that I saw Elbert. He is big and fat and is in the best of health. I had a long talk with him. "I received the box all O. K. and was glad to get the smoking. I have been promoted from first class private to corporal and believe me, it is some job, but I guess I can handle it all right. I am sending you a couple of pictures of myself and one of our 'trained' mules. I will send you some more of myself and the squad as soon as I can get them finished. I have a camera and take all of them myself." He closes by saying that the men were having some very cold weather there at the time the letter was written, which was in December.

MUST PREPARE FOR PERIOD AFTER WAR

Educational Campaign Opened Here to Meet Conditions as They Will Exist

JESSIE KITCHEN CHAIRMAN

Necessity of Higher Education Is Emphasized—Local High School Commended

The patriotic duty of young people to procure their educations in preparation for the demands that are going to be made upon them after the war, is emphasized in the bulletin sent to the schools of Indiana by the educational department of the Council of National Defense. The notices sent to each of the schools by Miss Jessie Kitchen, chairman of the educational propaganda committee of the County Council, marks the opening of the campaign which she has been appointed to head. The appeal sent out by the Council to the students is as follows: The young people of America have answered loyally the call of their country to aid in the defense of democracy and civilization. Students from our schools and colleges, young women as well as young men, have been among the first to volunteer in all lines of service. But the call for service today is not the only call. In the years which are coming, our country and the world will need trained men and women, as never before. And this places a heavy responsibility upon the boys and girls of today to lay the foundation for such service by securing the best possible education. The duty to remain in school to make ready for college was never so great. Do Your Bit, by preparing yourself for useful citizenship. Economize, practice self denial, make sacrifices, in order to secure a thorough education. Be a patriot. Educate yourself today that you may serve your country efficiently tomorrow. The report sent in by Superintendent J. H. Scholl to the Council of Defense disclosed the fact that the local schools have been very forward in their patriotic enterprises and very successful in their accomplishments. The highest form of patriotism is apparently necessary in the young people to have accomplished the ends that the report show. The school superintendent has urged all of the movements suggested by the Council and instituted a number on his own initiative. Some of the statements made in the report showing definitely what the Rushville school children are doing are: "Over the Top," and other war books are being circulated. Judge Will M. Sparks, Ernest B. Thomas, Robert E. Mansfield, and soldiers home on furloughs from several of the training camps have made patriotic talks at the schools. Service flags have been presented for the soldiers, for the Red Cross, and for the Red Triangle boys. Thirty-eight out of 176 boys pledged themselves to be among the "First Hundred Thousand" and earn ten dollars for the army Y. M. C. A. Sixty-eight girls are banded together for knitting and sewing and other war relief work. Twenty-five girls have knitted sweaters. Forty-two copies of the Literary Digest are taken by pupils and 26 copies of the Independent. One day in each history and English class, war and current topics are studied by the pupils. Institutes have been shortened to save fuel. The school children succeeded in getting 500 food pledge cards signed and distributed the literature for the movement. The school is a member of the State Council of Defense, through the efforts of Dr. Sherman Davis. J. Raymond Schmidt of Indianapolis, prohibition state chairman and member of the Indiana Dry Federation will conduct a county prohibition conference in the sheriff's office at the court house, Tuesday, January 15 at ten o'clock and at one o'clock. Mr. Schmidt will conduct a prohibition rally at the United Brethren church in Gretnaville, Tuesday, January 15 at seven o'clock.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immediately effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 50c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Much of Million Pounds Xmas Cheer Is Practical

31,341 Mail Sacks Carried Gifts to Sammies in France at Time
When Shipping Is Crowded

BATTLESHIP COMES TO AID

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—More than 1,000,000 pounds of Christmas
cheer went to American soldiers in France in 31,341 mail sacks. Much of this holiday cargo was of a useful character. Much of this "cheer"
would have gone over in time in any event. Otherwise the demand for cargo space for 1,181,055 pounds of
"Christmas gifts" at a time when every ton of shipping is needed as
never before for vital and practical
was service no doubt would have been refused. The common sense of the folk back home joined with their
good hearts to provide useful offerings, things suited to the actual

needs of the soldiers in France.

The United States Government not
only handled the huge Christmas
mail for the soldiers abroad without delay, but sent some 21,000 sacks of
the "cheer" mail on a battleship;
thus in large part relieving the regular shipping channels of the burden. In this way the Federal Government demonstrated its own appreciation of the immense problem
involved in separating the essential
from the nonessential in time of war.

While everybody is well pleased to think of Christmas cheer carried
over-sea to American soldiers, at the same time the soldiers themselves
would be the last to suggest that shipping ways be clogged or obstructed, or that war materials or relief supplies be delayed while Christmas presents or mere "Cheer"
for soldiers monopolize the right of

Will H. Hays, president of the

to the live stock section meeting with several breeders' associations.

In addition to those enumerated,
a large number of federal and state

many practical farmers and stock

will be given with many talks, and
something of interest to every farm-

In addition to the features offered

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Twen-

Food Administration for distribution
in support of the food conservation movement.

The leaflets, appropriately print-

suggestions for home service including the conservation of staples, sub-

LIBERTY BONDS NOT EXCHANGED

In Payment for Merchandise Is The Request of Secretary McAdoo
of Indiana Merchants

TAKE BONDS AT PREMIUM

Bonds Taken in Exchange Must be
Sold Immediately—Depressing
Market Price of Issue

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Indiana merchants who have been advertising their willingness to accept liberty bonds in payment for their
wares, are asked by the Indiana
State Council of Defense to desist.
The request comes from William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the United States treasury. Mr. McAdoo presents his reasons for the request
in the following authorized statement:

"It has been brought to my attention that numbers of merchants,
throughout the country are offering
to take Liberty Loan bonds of the first and second issue at par, or even
in some cases at a premium, in exchange for merchandise. While I have no doubt that these merchants
are actuated by patriotic motives, I am sure that they have failed to consider the effect which the acceptance of the offers would have upon
the situation.

"We are making the strongest effort to have these Government bonds,
purchased for permanent investment
by the people at large, to be paid for
out of the past or future savings of those who buy them. Purchases
thus made not only result in providing funds for the uses of the Government, but they also effect a conservation of labor and material.
When the bonds are exchanged for merchandise, it defeats the primary object of their sale, it discourages
thrift and increases expenditures,
thus depriving the Government of labor and material needed for war
purposes.

"In addition to this, such bonds
when taken in exchange for merchandise must in most cases be immediately sold in the open market.

This naturally tends to depress the
market price of the issue, and makes it less easy to sell future issues at the same rate.

"I hope that the merchants of the country, upon a more careful consideration of this subject, will discontinue their efforts to sell merchandise and take Liberty bonds in payment."

Mrs. C. M. Vocum of Kansas City,
former teacher of the Loyal Daughters Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian church, has written a letter to the class which will be read Sunday morning at the regular meeting by Mrs. Walter Fra-
zee, teacher. A good attendance is

NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE Rushville Women Have Learned The Cause of Many Mysterious Pains And Aches

Many women have come to know
that sex isn't the reason for all
backaches, dizzy headaches, and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live
simply, eat sparingly, take better
care of one's self and to use Doan's
Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad
kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well recommended by Rushville people. Read this case:
Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 824 N. Arthur St., Rushville, says: "I have had kidney trouble and I certainly appreciate
what a serious complaint it is and
how severely one can suffer from it.
My trouble began with a dull, dragging pain across my kidneys and
over my hips. I was unable to do my housework for a week and was in misery. Others of my family had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results, so I got some from Lytle's Drug Store. I started using Doan's and the pain in my back soon
disappeared."

HOW MUCH FOOD IN U. S. LARDERS

This Is What First Year End Inventory Provided for Congress Is to Find Out

WHAT RESULTS WILL SHOW

Persons Willfully Failing or Making False Returns Subject to Fine And Sentence

How much food has Uncle Sam in his national larder with which to start the New Year? How adequately can he feed until harvest time his many millions of civilians and soldiers? Will it be necessary during the coming twelve months for his citizens to eat war bread? Can he furnish the share which he ought of the daily ration needed by the fighting men of the allies? And can he supplement somewhat, perhaps, the meager fare of the friendly neutrals to whom the war has brought the pinch of hunger?

These are the big and vital questions, so important to the conduct of the war, which the bureau of markets of the United States department of Agriculture is seeking to answer by carrying out the war emergency food survey provided for by the last congress. All over the country today first steps are being taken to answer these questions. Hundreds of thousands of persons in control of food supplies, large and small, are filling out schedules mailed to them by the army of employees which the Bureau of Markets has assembled in Washington to conduct the big year-end food inventory. These schedules will show the quantities of more than one hundred different foods on hand December 31, 1917, quantities on hand December 31, 1916, for comparison, and the quantities shipped out by freight or express that have not been delivered to the consignee. To the totals of these figures will be added quantities held by retail food dealers in certain counties where store-to-store canvasses are being made. The latter intensive surveys will be made in order that the figures for the entire country can be checked.

In addition, about 40,000 selected families will report on special schedules regarding the stocks of food on hand, and the ways in which they utilize certain food products. These figures will be used as a basis upon which to estimate the amount of food in the more than 20 million homes of the country. When all this information has been tabulated, Uncle Sam will have available for the first time, sorely needed data upon which to formulate plans for efficient production and wise use of the munition which is of greatest importance in winning the war—food.

To guard against any food handlers being missed by failure to include them in the mailing list, the Bureau of Markets has sent supplies of schedules to its agents throughout the country for distribution, and at the same time has announced that all individuals and concerns handling foods who do not receive schedules through the mails by January 2, will be expected to

Says it is suicide to cut corns, and tells how they lift right out

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of Iodine." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, itching corn should relieve the distress instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pain.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a German man, who says that while Iodine is sticky it cures the corn, and seems to simply shrivel the corn out without irritating or even hurting the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die from infection of a new corn whitening at his corns, but get out and make him try it.

CORN FLOUR DISPOSED OF

Barnard Ordered Supply of Dutch Removed

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.—Two hundred and fifty tons of corn flour which had been in storage in the Fishback warehouses in Indianapolis owned by the Dutch government, has been ordered removed by Dr. Harry E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, to prevent its loss through souring. The flour was purchased from the American Hominy company and was to have been exported, but before it could be moved the embargo ordered by the United States government, prevented such disposition of it. Agents for the Dutch government were directed by Dr. Barnard to dispose of it at once and as a result it is being made into stock feed by the Baltimore Pearl hominy company, effecting a big saving.

4 DAY SHORT COURSE WILL BE IN 7 TOWNS

Purdue Professors Will Give 15 Lectures During Course—Car of Live Stock to Demonstrate

12,000 Expected to Attend

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 11.—The program was completed today for the four day short course which will be given in seven Indiana towns the latter part of the winter under the direction of the extension department of the University of Purdue.

Regular professors at Purdue will give fifteen lectures during the four days. A car load of livestock will be carried on the tour to demonstrate points in the lectures. Talks will be given on dairying, soil and crop improvement, poultry and home economics.

The dates for the meetings are: Oakland City, Jan. 22 to 23; Orleans Jan. 29 to Feb. 1; Greensburg, Feb. 5 to 8; Connersville, Feb. 12 to 15; Monroeville, Feb. 19 to 22; Columbia City, Feb. 26 to March 1; Rochester, Mar. 5 to 8.

Twelve thousand farmers, their wives and children will attend the meetings, according to estimates. Last year, fewer places were visited and 8,000 attended.

The tour is held in connection with the annual short course which will be given at Lafayette starting Jan. 14.

apply to the local agencies for copies. Congress put teeth in the act authorizing the making of a food survey by providing that persons willfully failing to make returns when called upon, or willfully making incorrect returns, will be subjected to a fine of not more than $1000, or imprisonment for not more than one year. The Bureau of Markets, however, is counting on receiving the willing cooperation of all persons in possession of food-stuffs who should make reports, and cases in which it will be necessary to make use of the law's teeth.

Within a few days, the first of the more than three-quarters of a million schedules will begin pouring back to Washington, bearing the information which congress was willing to spend $600,000 to obtain. In Washington, the schedules will be tabulated as promptly as possible by a staff of special clerks. When information on the last of the hundred or more foods under investigation have been tabulated Uncle Sam can apply consumption figures obtained from other investigation and find approximately what his food balance is from time to time. Then he can take steps to ward off any threatened shortage, can share his store intelligently with the allies, and can, in short, consider with his eyes open all the problems of his commissary department. Equally as important as caring for his existing stocks of food, he can plan wisely a production program for the years ahead, sufficient to fill his own wants and to supplement the war depleted output of his companies in time.

SOLDIERS ARTS TAUGHT RUSH BOYS

Learn First Steps in Soldiering, E. R. Wagoner at Camp Shelby, Miss. Says in Letter

High Prices Charged Soldiers in Southern Towns Cause Dissatisfaction Among Men

That soldiers in the United States army can obtain any end they desire through hard work and study is the version of Everett R. Wagoner of Company C, 152nd Infantry stationed at Camp Shelby. In the following letter which the infantryman has written, he speaks most enthusiastically of the work which the men are doing at the camp.

Rush county boys stationed at Camp Shelby have learned the first step in becoming real soldiers—that of being satisfied with our lot and the work which is laid down for us to accomplish. As a result a number of Rush county's soldiers who left home in the summer months with no rank or title except that of private have attained various positions of note. Several corporals have been appointed as well as a number of sergeants in the various outfits.

"Every one is well pleased with the training which military life is offering. It gives a certain outlook on life which could not be obtained otherwise, and although our lives are not one round of pleasures we are satisfied and enjoy the work. Trench digging, company drill and school composes our work for each day.

"Every one in our outfit had as pleasant a holiday season as we could wish, away from home and the Red Cross did much in making the Christmas of those who had no one to bring Christmas cheer to them, a happy day.

"There is one feeling in our camp, however, which shouldn't exist. The southern towns, by charging big prices for their goods are growing rich as a result of the purchases of the northern soldiers, and as a result there is again a dim recollection of the feeling which must have existed years ago when the north and south took up arms against one another.

"We were on the combat range a short time ago and as we were close to the artillery training camp we received a slight impression of real war. The artillery fire passed over us almost constantly as we worked, the old shells singing in the air as they passed. We have had some gas instructions which are very interesting. The bayonet fencing is also part of the daily drill which the infantry seem to enjoy to a great extent.

"Some of the fellows from the northern part of Rush county called on friends in our company recently and we were certainly glad to see them as we don't see the men from home who are stationed in other companies very often."

SERVICE FLAG PRESENTED

Judge Will M. Sparks delivered the address at the patriotic service conducted Sunday at the Methodist Protestant church in New Salem, when the Sunday school presented a service flag to the church. The flag contained nine stars. As the flag was being raised the names of the boys who have joined the colors were called out. The enlisted men from the church include Earl Spilman, Herbert Nash, Raymond Higgins, Everett McHenry, Edward West, Roy Cumberston, Caramel McKinney, Fred Spacey and Dallas Hardwick.

Relatives of Frank Owens of this city, now with Battery E, 15th field artillery believe that he is either on the way or has arrived in France. They last heard from him four weeks ago last Tuesday. At that time he was at Camp Merritt near Jersey City.
